ST. JOSEPH'S
RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL OF RURAL AND DOMESTIC ECONOMY, CARRICK-ON-SUIR.
THIS School is under the supervision of the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction, and is intended for girls who have gone through the usual course of literary school work.
The course of training is calculated to make the girls good, practical, economical housekeepers, and to fit them for all household duties in life.
The following subjects receive special attention - Dairying (including Dairies-making), Poultry Rearing, Horticulture, Household Management, Needlework (including Dress-making), Sewing Machines Making and Repairing, Cleaning, Cooking, Laundry Work, First Aid, Hygiene and Physiology.
Qualified Teachers stationed by the Department are now resident in the School, which is fitted up with the very newest and most up-to-date requirements.
Students have every facility to get a thorough training in every branch in which a girl of the present day, especially a farmer's daughter, should excel.
If parents desire their girls to be prepared for a Entrance Examination to Kilmacud Training School, Dublin, or for the Munster Institute, Cork, or Free Time may be devoted to accomplishments.
Persons interested in Technical Education (especially the members of the Joint Technical Instruction Committee who have been students of the School) are requested to pay a visit to this School and see for themselves the work that is being done. Students' work will be on exhibition at the School the last week in June.
For terms, etc., apply to

In a Good Advertising Medium.

The "Limerick Leader" circulates extensively all over the counties of Limerick, Clare, and Tipperary, as well as in several districts of Cork & Kerry. It claims - and Challenges contradiction of the fact - that it has by far the Largest Circulation of any tri-weekly in Munster.

A regular advertiser, forwarding a repeat order, says: "I must say that advertising in your valuable paper gives me every satisfaction, and has brought me excellent results in increased and increasing business."
The tribute is but one of several received from time to time, but it has a peculiarly compelling lesson and appeal for every wise business firm.

Is it made in Ireland?

WHEN making a purchase always ask the question. If it's not Irish, ask to see the Irish article. Nine times out of ten it will suit your purpose better. Look down this list. Every article advertised is Irish. Almost everything you require about the house can be purchased from it. The manufacturers represented are the most progressive in the country. Their products represent the cream of Irish industry. Make all your purchases from these lists. Read them down every week. New names are continually appearing. Bring this List with you when Shopping.

UNION AMALGAMATION RATHKEALE CONTROVERSY

Guardians' Opinions (Continued) A meeting of the Rathkeale Board of Guardians was held on Thursday, Mr. Thomas Markham, Chairman, presided. Other members present were Messrs. J. Deane, J. Deane, M. Naughton, W. Halpin, M. Casey, J. Magner, M. Kennerly, P. Ganey, J. Fitzgerald, P. Jackson.

The following communication from Dalí Eireann, L.G. Department on the amalgamation of unions in Limerick was read:

A CHAIRMAN: The minutes of the proceedings of the Governing Body of Limerick County have been before the Ministry of Dalí Eireann. It is observed that the minutes contain a system of amalgamation on the various vestments in the county with a view to having the very best selection made for the hospital and other hospitals.

Vastly different views have been raised under different heads in the manner in which the Governing Body and the Department have dealt with the scheme of amalgamation in County Limerick, and it would now appear as if the governing body had also failed in the criticisms which have been made, not only concerning the whole matter.

The Chairman of the Board of Guardians, Mr. J. Deane, presided. He said he was sorry to hear that the Department had not been pleased with the scheme of amalgamation.
