ORIGIN OF COIN NAMES.

When we read that sterling-has falles is exchange value who knows the origin of the term? Yet it is traced to the inhabitants of the Hansa towns, known as Esterlings, who were invited by King John of England to come to England and reform the currency, which had become very corrupt. From that date good English money was derived from Moneta, one of the surnames of June, is whose temple the Romans first made coins. The word mint is supposed to be a contraction of the word Moneta through the Anglo-Saxon "mynet." The dollar has a German origin, having been the thaler, or more fully Joachim's thaler, the silver coin struck out of the silver found in the thal or valley of SS. Josehim, France. This was extremely pure, and being coined into ounces gave the real basis of the silver dollar, which should weight an onnce. The cent meant a hundredth, abo French word for hundred, and is the approprists mame for the coin, which is one-hasdredth of a dollar. The quarter is saw. So All as more through the place standings

Two domand for the release of the Irish palitical prisoners, we are glad to see, is daily growing in strength and volume.

There are as present in she jails and internmant samps some 6,000 men and woman who have not been tried and against whom no charge has been made.

The arrest of these people on more suspicion was, in the first instance, a gross violation of the elementery principles of right, while their continued detention without being aver brought to total is a positive and inexcessible wrong and geandal.

The real jallers of these prisoners-the Bri tish Oabinet and Dublin Oastle-are foud of boasting of the fairness of what they call the Brisish Constitution, but they have themselves trampled on one of the basic principles of that system-the principle that every person is supposed to be innocent until absolutely proved guilty as the result of a fair trial.

From aven their own standpoint, therefore the ministers and agents of the English Go vernment stand without a real justification for the continued detention of the Irish political prisoners and interness.

Added to that general indictment is the augravating fact that these being kept within the prison bars and barbed wire entanglements have not been getting the treatment and status rightly due to them as political prisoners. Justice and humanity loudly elamour for the immediate setting free of these Trishmon and Irishwomen, who are as present undergoing imorisonment en mere auspielon.

But there is util another reason why the prisoners shou! i be given their liberty at once. A Conference will sit an Tuesday next and following days to explore the possibilities of permanent peace between I sland and Great Britals and the atmosphere for that Conference would be made desidedly more favourable and more hopeful if all the prisoners were released before the sittinge began.

The view is strongly held, and not without reason, that the British Governmens's attitude sowards this question of release within the next few days will be a good teet of the sincerity or the reverse of its professed desire to have permanent peace subablished between the iwo countries.

If the British Cabinet really wish for peace shay will as once see the wisdom of speedily releasing all the priseners, and doing so with as good a grass as possible.

Most Rev Dr Fogarty, Bishop of Killalos saked for an expression of opinion on the demand for release, hald be andpreed same.

"The continued detention of the prisoners in the present circumstances," added his Lordship, "is a soussiess cruelty, and serves no purpose except to engender a bitternase which phy would prafer to see absent jak at present. As an instance, take the case of the Very Hev Father O Kennedy, Freeldent of Ennis College. That eminent priest was arrested without sharme two days before the Tence. Ever since he has been kept in a rheumable tent in Bera Island, and in what is practically solitary confinement. No one is allowed to see him. The punishment is savers enough for the worst of oriminals."

Mr Carolan is not aware what devices were adopted as regards the main oamo ; but the labours of the new Commandant's ergineering sheff were directed to strangthening the wire entanglements which had been erected at the working at the task of making a new exit from the cage proper. This they succes fally accomplished by removing one of she corrugabed pintes from the latring. On Friday night the occupants of the Oage wars losked up as usual by the Brillah officer in charge. A couple of Act of 1902 for a new hotal licance in respect bours afterwards the four effected on exit from the Cage into the open air in the manner Indieased. They then began to erawl slong the ground on their stomachs. There was a shoug light, but they remained for a distance of a over 27 years with a practically statcless refaw yards in the shadow sast by the corrugased fron wall. After erawling for a few yards. they had to prove in the full light a space of sals of the premises in William street, and it about S yards on which grass was growing to a height of about a foot. Having successfully accompliated this part of their perilons loarstey without astracting the attention of the sentrice The certainty of a Conference as assured by skey came to the first of the wire entagelemonte eracied amonget the high grass. Te one of the four daring spirit; was entrusted. the task of cutting a passage through the wires. This he did, working at about ten yards from the sentries. Ine process of orawing was than resumed, and now the proshem directly towards the block house of the seneries and perailel with a serip known as "The Death Trap," a spros brightly lighted | quired for the accommodation of gagats. and within view of two sentry block houses. The sensiles had orders to shoot at eight lusernees corn in "The Death Trap." These who might he found smong the wire snist g'omente wers to be challenged. When they reached the next wire enpappioments they were directly under the sentries but shaded from their view by the chadow oass by the bluck house. Here they lay with their beads even on the ground while one of the four worked away at the wire outling. Three quarters of an hour this tack compled, In the moantime they heard the centries calling their posts every quarter of an hour "All's

Well." It was a calm and sharry night, but again a passage was out through the wires without attracting attention. The little party moved sowards the open gats. On their way of which listle is known in Irstand ; and i shey had to pass by the door of the sentrice' blockhouse, and beneath its window. They brawled safely past and wont through the > gateway. They were now, having left the ent wires abone ten yards behind them, in a large open place of ground used by $50 Brisish proops at the Outragh as a place of exercise. Through this they ran for a space, and were again sompalled to halt when they encountered another wire cutaogiement. This obstacle was successfully overcome, and the party found themselves on a road onteidde the samp. Three of them only, however, teached this point. H's companions missed the fourth while they were in the ground manifound. The object of the three companious now was to put as much DE space as possible between them and the camp. 892648 Patches of furss afforded them cocasional cover. But they were by no means cale, because the area in which they wers was accustomed to be 1111 awapt periodically by powerful esarchifghts worked from the Ourragh Barracks. The fact that it was a starty pight may have caused the operation to be less frequently performed than naual. At an rate the lights did not fl teh while the three were in the dauger none. At asven o'clock in the morning they found themselves about aine miles from the camp, having walked from the time they left, they calculated about nineteen. In the meantime they had met not a single, percon. Thence they worked their way to safely. Mr Oarolan was a National teaches in Belfast, and a Sinn Fein candidata at the elections. His father is Councillor Catolan, a member of the Belfast Corporation. His companion in the great adventure, Mr Traynor, is younger. Both are unmarried. Mr Bracken is married, and is over thirty years of official knowledge of the burglary, and on the

"That we, the Management Committee and members of Court Sarsfield, in meeting assembled, beg to tender to Bro Daniel Nilsen and family our heartfelt sympathy at the ead death of his young wife, and that this meeting, after disposing of its most important business, | Nestor. adjourn in respect to her mamory."

Uoples of the resolution were ordered to be forwarded to Bro Nilsen and the Press .--THOMAS DUNBAR OS.

Mr J S Gallany, O S, prosecuted. The following gentiemen were sworn on the Papty Jury : - A B Hamilbon (foreman), Samuel Whissaker, Masshew Quillioso, Michael Gough, James Dooley, Wm Barry, D Toomey Thomas Popper, Alexander Jordan, Patrick Vaughan. Wm M Arshur, Phillp Gleeson.

Prisoner, on being asked to plead, told the Court that us had ucthing to say.

Patrick Kelly, 36 Prospect Hill, L'merick, in the employment of Nector Bros, stated that on the morning of the 27th March, at the shop, which is a look up one, he saw a door leading from an able burst open; the slates were is. moved from the reof, and plaster broken, making an opening rufficiant for the entry of a man: he found the articles (stready named) missing. To his Honor-The attic was in its normal condition on the previous day.

Head-Constable Byrne, RIO, said he had 1sy March, 1931, he saw the prisoner brought to the barracks by a military picket ; he gave his address as 8 Parkview Terrace, Limerick, and witness sant a party of police to cearch at his address ; shey brought back the black tin trank (produced), and the truck and its contents were submitted to the prisoner, who had been previously cautioned.

To his Honor-There had been no charge lavied against him up to that time, Witness, continuing, said accused stated he presiding, the following vote of sympathy was | bought the various articles of drapery through proposed by Bro H Ryan, SOR, seconded by the country and had got some of the other staff from his brother and gave the brother's address in Oo Roscommon ; a few days later he said he

An interesting presentation took place at the Limariak branch of the Provincis: Bank when the late manager, Mr E F M Melvills, was presented with an illuminated seroll and a valuable fitted sais case with other articles as a soken if the setsem and affection entertained for him by the members of the staff, not only in Limerick, but in the bank's services in general. Mr L H Taylor, his successor in the managership, having referred in affecting terms to Mr. Malville's long and honourable record in she bank, the presentation was formally made by Mr Smith

In returning thanks, Mr Melville expressed the regret he felt at parting with such a loval and sealcus staff, of officials, but the time would come when he should sever his sonnos. tion with them. He wished them all very many pleasant years in the service which they all so highly appreciated.

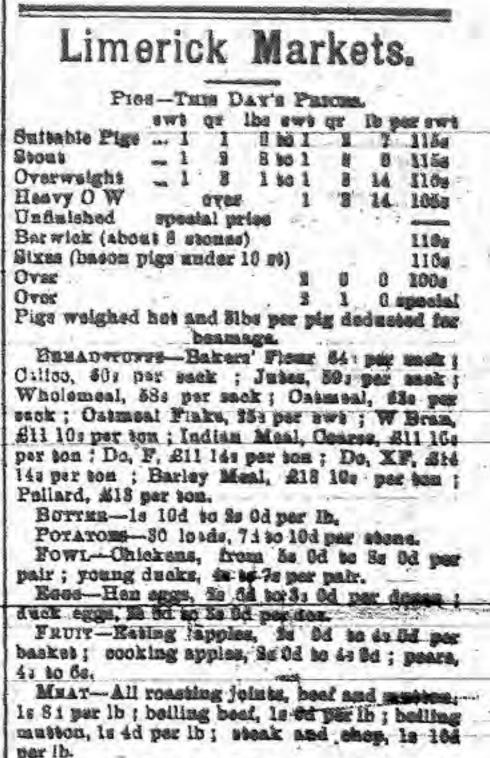

The proceedings terminated with the reading of latters from representatives of all ganks of the bank's service testifying to Me Meivilla's Laiversal popularity and courtesy.

Ris many friends in Midieton and district will be pieased to learn that Mr J R Murphy; olerk in the Midleton branch of the Munster and Leinster Back, is being transferred on well-deserved promosion to a higher and more responsible position in the Limerick branch of the Bank, and is about to take his departure from Midiston, where he has spent close on five years, with the heartlest good wishes of his collesgass. Mr Murphy who belongs to Milletrest, made a best of friends during his com. parasively short sime in Midletrn, and by his tact and courtesy in the discharge of his official dusies was most popular with the sustomars of the Bank in Midleton, and Bass Oork. He was a valued member of the Oburch choir at Midle. ton, being possessed of a splendid barinane voice, and had also been in much demand as local soulal antertainments.

HOW ARE YOU?

Many people have a very poor idea of what it is to be really well. They are quite content so long as they can manage to get about and do their daily work and keep out of the doctor's hands. Health, however, is much more than this. It means energy, vigour, good spirits. It means fitness in every sense of the word. It means a system that is perfectly nourished and free from ailments, a system in which all the organs perform their functions naturally and thoroughly. If your health is not altogether satisfactory, you will find a wonderful help in Beecham's Pills. They have an excellent, purifying, stimulating and tonie effect and do much to promote good health and physical efficiency.
