Two Grave Evils

Iwo grave evils—the had Press and the bad stnems - formed the sabject of most important discourses delivered last week to the Arch-Confrageralty of the Holy Family in Limerick. The preacher was Ray Bather Halpin, S J. Dabtin, who had just concluded a Retreat preached to the Confrateralty of the Sacred Heart in the Jesuit Church, and his statements and anhorsations on the agreedes of demoral. isation mentioned deserve more than passing Fasher Halpin showed in clear-out, sloquent to secrete oldrand and agendant and to secrete of bna enoltanling elderlandnu noltanimations and films can be, and adduced some very starting facts and instances in proof of his assertions.

Most of the newsagenoise of the presons day are in the hands of Atheisis, Freemisons, and Jews, and that, of source, is the reason why so much of what appears in cartain news papers is either openly on installestly anti-Catholic and and Unristian.

Then again publication: that are patently and brutally immodest and immoral in their contents are being issued from the printing proce in thousands of tone week after week,

The extent of these appailing evils was suposed in a striking and thought-compelling manner by Father Halpin, who issued a colemn warning against such terrible dangers, and 10 to S. JOHN ENRIGHT, 9, Glensworth. strongly urged that at least one good Oathollo paper should be taken into avery household rogularly every week.

Eather Helpin was equally no shing in his atriotures on the bad o'nem, which consti tates an avii of appailing dimensions.

He explained shat of the films being burned one by the producers 75 per cent were condemued as had by a Board of Dansars composed of non-Oatholies, only 5 parceas of the ramainder being described as of an admostive or instructive character.

These figures show the terrible dangers of the cinema, for it is certain that many of the plotures passed by Boards of Contors like that mentioned are at lesse of very donoisal character.

The wonderful growth of the fim-making industry, and consequently the nature and widespread character of the danger to be guarded against, is seen from the fact, manstoned by Father Halpin, that in the United Connections, Rocting Peles, Natis of all descrip- | States- the land of nug : oil and other traststhe production of films is the fourth largest is more rigid eensorship of files.

Borough and Urban Councils and other logal public asthorities, he explained, bave and borosnes could the aven of degin ad ass blacks The weakness in the protest consection he argued, is show is is info to members of Vigil ance Commistees to object to poures when shey are exhibited publicy, and he secongly advocated that no pirio e whiteher should be shown notil is it first submarsed to and passed by a board or body of omine applicand by the local anthority which give the plature house

In the large sities and towns in this country the cinems is on the whole kept at a presty decent standard-though not alsogether above orlitoiem - rut Fother Halpla joxp. al. al that did same really bas films were finding their way into the smaller to ous and villages, where there was no astempt at eau-orahip.

The clastes out he a potent ago it for god: or evil and he openiminating hiftisness mus be fought with every weares available.

The asme is time of the Proce, which can do much good or on enormity of harm.

Father Halpia's discourses on these two subjects were simply and useful, and the evils so which he called attention unuses be too closely watched or too vigorously lought.

BEATEN BY 30 TO 1 "Ulster's" Reply to British Premier

The Unionist Conference at Liverpool yesterday, administered a knock-out blow to the 'Die Hards,' defaating their anti-peace mation by about 80 to 1. Out of tome 2,000 delegates not more than 60 or 70 ones their votes against the British Government's afforts to bring about an Anglo-Irish Pases.

The Press Association's Balfash correspondent says that the defeat of the "Die Harde" caseed indignation among Ulster "loyalists." but little sutprise. The belief was confidently dealared in official Unionist circles in Belfact shat Mr Bonar Law will help Ulsier if any estempt is made to force her into an All-Ireland Parliament. The "Ulater" Oabinet's coply to Mr Lloyd | Mahoonagh ; Miss M Murphy, Tournafol's

George was delivered yesterday. It arges the early publication of the Notes which have passed between the two Cabinets Osherwise there is said to be little change in Ulster's attitude Unofficially, however, it is tearned that Uleter might be willing to enter an informal conference on the underespeding shall her acticu would not commit her to ceranin conditions in the Government's proposals which she desires to have withdrawn.

It is not improbable (says the London correspondent of the "Freeman") that Mr Lloyd George may not at once close down his negostations with the Orange leaders, who now fully recognise that even in the Conservative Party, in Parliament, or in the country they san no longer command any substantial support for their impossible demands.

is, of course, busy as to the decision to be Commistee in piece of Rev James Hayes. reached by the Cabines. That the Prime Minister will take some dramatic step within the coares of ste next few days is generally sesumed Mr Byrar Law may also smerge from his restrement to head the revolvers to defeat. will firmly adhere to their unanimous depision to seek a rettlement providing for the establishment of an A'l-Ireland Parliament and the complete withdrawal of the Irish caprecentatives at Westminster, and may ask the electric of Greek Britain for an andorsemean of their proposal. On such an issue the Government would be returned to power by a subspantial majority and the position of 'Ulater" extremists would become very orision! indeed. The situation is undeabtedly full of momentous possibilities, but whatever happens to to felb that the negotiations with the Irish Dalegaves will be resumed, if not immediately, the moment a general election shows that the overwheloting majority of the British people are desermined so allow no trreconcilable faction to prevent a settlement which is so essential in Brilish and Imperial Interests. The onvices, under a most any conssivable ofrenm. stances, is cortainly not bright so far as the peace wreckers in Ireland and in this country are concurred.

Lecture by Father Philip

There was a very crowded audience in the Limerick Ostholic Liverary Incileate on Wed. needly night, when Roy Esther Philip, OF M. Duella, delivered a leature envisied "A Trip to Countmars and the Atran Isles," which was illastrated with lantern via ws.

The Very Rev Oanon O'Driscoll, P P, V F Si Manchin's, presided, and in a few brief sentenose introduced Father Philip, who, by gold, was well known and respected in Limerick. where he was on the mission up to a few months ago, when he was transferred to Dabila. The subject would, he fels no doubt, receive at the hands of the lecturer full and careful treasment, and bring before them the beauties and romance of the West.

Rev Fasher Pollip, who was very cordially received, in the course of his address, referred in picturer que language to Connemara and the Islan of Arran, which he remarked were unsurpassed for holdness of soanery and the characteristic beauties of suderage. He gave a graphic survey of the Pather Halpin's remedy for the pioture evil Joyce Country, its people and their stell forward. bures, while of the inhabitants of the Arran leles be spoke to terms of enology. The country, he said, would repay a visis, and he arged that holiday-makers and others should, before they sought reiex islon from h. ma imake themselves mura fully conversion with the natural beauties of their own clentry.

At the conclusion, the Rev Chairman conrayal she shanks of the assolublage to Father Pattin far his instructive lecture, and the later briefly noknowledge d the compliment.
