THE IRISH ELECTIONS. POSITION IN SOUTH AND NORTH.

The nomination of candidates for the Southern and the Northern Ireland Houses of Commons will take place on the 13th inst., and the polling of votes (if any) will be held on the 24th inst.

It is not expected that there will be many contested elections in Southern Ireland, and, therefore, those who may be nominated for constituencies in that area will in most cases, if not in all, be returned unopposed on the 13th.

The first meeting of the Northern House of Commons will take place on June 7th.

There will be a separate proclamation summoning the Southern Parliament to meet on June 21st, but whether that summons will be obeyed or not remains to be seen. The effect of meeting if there should be a meeting of the Parliament is a matter of speculation.

A Press Association message says inquiries in Cork go to show that there is very little probability of a contest in the South of Ireland, and it is generally thought that the Sinn Fein nominees will have unopposed returns.

CANADIAN CATTLE. COMMISSION OF FIVE TO CONSIDER CASE FOR ADMISSION.

Replying to Mr. Hired (Conservative member for Fermanagh) in the House of Commons, Mr. Shortt (for the Prime Minister) announced the personnel of the Royal Commission which is to enquire into the Canadian cattle embargo. They are Lord Friday (chairman), Sir Abraham Frith, Sir Henry Peel, and Sir Arthur Shipley.

The terms of reference to the Commission are to "enquire into the admission into Great Britain and Ireland of live stock for purposes other than immediate slaughter at the ports; whether such admission would increase and cheapen the meat supply of the country; if so, to what extent, and whether it is desirable, having regard to the necessity for protecting live stock bred in the country from the introduction of disease and of reducing their numbers after the losses to which they were subjected during the war."

Ireland ignored.

A point in the Commission which was to be any Irish representative on this Commission, whose reference was of such importance to Ireland.

Sir Maurice Dockrell, if there is to be no Irishman on the Commission, will therefore at least someone conversant with Irish conditions.

Mr. Shortt, I will convey that to the Prime Minister, but I have given the Commission already appointed.

N. MAHER & SONS are instructed by Mr. Thos. S. O'Dwyer to Sell by Public Auction, AT TIPPERARY, On Saturday, 21st May, 1921.

His interest in his two very desirable Residential Holdings, situate at Ballynagaddy, and comprising as follows:

Lot 1. 3/4, 2, 3, 4, or thereabouts, statute measure, of the prime dairy and feed land, with attractive slated Residence and the ranges of out-offices thereon, held from the L.L.C. of the half yearly rent of £15 5s. 6d.

Lot 2. 3/4, 6, 8, statute measure, or thereabouts, of equally good feeding land, with comfortable slated Residence and good range of out-offices thereon, also held from the Irish Land Commission at the half yearly rent of £13 2s. 6d.

They are situate a short distance from the country road, and have a perfect, well kept approach. The two lots are suitably divided, well fenced and sheltered, and amply supplied with water.

They are of a deep, rich, fertile soil, equally well adapted for dairying, feeding, and tillage purposes, remarkable in the district for their exceptional feeding properties and tillage results, have always been worked to advantage, entirely without waste, and together in great heart. The tillage portion carefully manured, filled, and cropped with potatoes, corn, and mangolds in the most up-to-date manner, leaving a small portion of cultivated ground in readiness for a turnip crop.

There is a large corrugated iron Hay Barn on the premises. The Residences on each holding are both attractive, commodious structures, in up-to-date order and repair, like the slated out-offices, which are in every way up to the requirements of the property.

The Auctioneers beg to draw the attention of those in quest of a high-class residential holding to the sale of this well-circumstanced estate, which is situate within one mile of the village of Bansha, where there are churches, post and telegraph offices, creameries, schools, and railway station, and midway between Tipperary and Caher, hence well served for fair and markets. Private proposals will be taken for the property, in one or two lots, up to 19th May, when the highest, if deemed sufficient, will be accepted.

Terms: A deposit of one-fourth the purchase money will be required, with 5 per cent. commission, on purchaser being declared. Sale at One o'clock.

PUBLIC NOTICE. Restoration of Order in Ireland Regulations.

Whereas by an Order made by the Competent Military Authorities, and dated the 7th March, 1921, the holding of Fairs and Markets was prohibited in the area mentioned in the schedule of the Order. Now I, Colonel-Commandant Cameron, Competent Military Authority, Commanding the 16th Infantry Brigade, do hereby declare and order that the said Order, so far as it prohibits the holding of Fairs and Markets in Areas No. 1, 2, and 3, that is to say, in the District-Inspectorates of Tipperary, Cashel, and Kilkenna, shall be suspended as from 7th day of May, 1921.

A footnote says:—It should be noted that the operation of the Order at Tipperary is merely suspended, and may be re-imposed at any time, if necessity for such imposition should arise.

LIMERICK JUNCTION RACES.

In another page the entries for the May two-day meeting at Limerick Junction are advertised. The entry is a magnificent one, showing that the "Junction" is as popular with the racing fraternity as it is so deservedly with the general public. The appointments of the course are unsurpassed in Ireland, and so centrally and conveniently situate is the venue that it is no wonder the Limerick Junction races have already taken a leading, if not actually the premier, place in provincial fixtures.

PUBLIC MEETINGS ALLOWED DURING ELECTIONS.

The Castle authorities announce that statements in the Press that election meetings are prohibited and illegal are quite inaccurate. In the martial law area there exists a prohibition against holding all meetings but arrangements have been completed for removing that prohibition for the election period, May 13 to 24, in all areas in which Parliamentary contests take place.

De Valera and Craig Meet.

FUTURE OF IRELAND DISCUSSED (From The Irish Times of May 6). The momentous announcement was made last evening that Sir James Craig, the leader of the Unionist Party in North-East Ulster, and Mr. de Valera, the leader of the Sinn Fein Party, had met. At their meeting, according to an official statement, their respective points of view were interchanged and the future of Ireland was discussed. The significance of this announcement, especially in the present state of affairs in Ireland, can hardly be overestimated. It was, of course, known, from their previous public declarations, that both leaders were willing to meet, but nobody had hoped that the meeting could take place so soon. Inquiries made in various quarters last evening failed to elicit any definite information as to where the conference was held, or whether any of the other supporters of either party were present, but there is absolutely no reason to doubt that a conference was held. It is important to note that Sir James Craig is to meet a hurriedly convened meeting of Ulster Unionist candidates in Belfast to-day. Sir James Craig was unexpectedly summoned to the Viceregal Lodge on Wednesday.

THE IRISH LEADERS' MEETING. SECRET PEACE-MOVES WITH THE GOVERNMENT DENIED. MATTER BEFORE BELFAST CONFERENCE TO-DAY.

The Press Association wires:—It was declared in influential circles to-day (Friday) that the meeting between Sir James Craig and De Valera, in Dublin, was in no way the outcome of so-called secret peace-moves instituted by the Government. If joint representations are made to the Cabinet on behalf of Ireland, the Press Association has good authority for saying that the suggestion of an Amending Bill, based upon proposals agreed to by either side, would receive consideration. A conference between Sir James Craig and the Unionist candidates at the forthcoming elections for the new Northern Parliament was held in Belfast to-day. It is understood that the main topic of discussion was in relation to the conference which Sir James and Mr. De Valera had yesterday in Dublin on the Irish situation. Generally the proceedings were private, but it is expected that an official statement will be issued later.

R.A.S.C. DRIVERS ATTACKED AT NENAGH. A MULE KILLED.

General Headquarters issued the following communique to-day:—Three R.A.S.C. drivers, with two transport mules, were held up outside Nenagh railway station, Co. Tipperary, by three men armed with revolvers. One of the mules was shot dead and the other wounded. The drivers escaped unharmed.

FURTHER CORK REPRISALS.

Last evening a special troop train arrived at Rathmore, Co. Cork, with military, who were accompanied by police carrying tins of petrol, and who marched to the scene of Wednesday's ambush, and as an official reprisal the following farmers' houses nearest to the scene were burned:—Timothy Moylan, Thos. O'Connor, Garrett Nagle, Patrick Donoghue. Rain was falling as the four families were rendered homeless.

LORD DERBY'S RETURN TO IRELAND RUMOURED.

The only thing new in regard to the peace negotiations is the rumour current in Dublin to-day that Lord Derby has returned to Ireland. Confirmation is so far lacking.

MINERS REPORTED RETURNING TO WORK.

In regard to a settlement of the coal dispute one thing is certain, says the Press Association, and that is that within the ranks of the miners themselves movements are developing, and news has reached London to-day to the effect that the men are actually returning to work in small bodies in different districts. This action is considered to be not without significance.

MINERS' STRIKE FUNDS DWINDLING.

The Notts Miners' Association was unable to pay strike money this morning.

DISGUISED MEN BURN A PUBLIC-HOUSE.

Five men with blackened faces entered the licensed house owned by Mrs. Conway, at Crundin, Co. Dublin, at two o'clock this morning, and set fire to it. The place was buried to the ground.

SUFFOCATED BY GAS.

Harry Dalby (a manager), his wife, and seven-months-old baby were found suffocated by gas at a bakery this morning. Dalby was found dead on the stairs, and his wife, and child in bed.

Act, reached the limit of concession, no further discussion would be entered into.

Mr. De Valera and Sinn Fein, he declared, were fully aware that Ulster would not consent to any Republic. He defied any authority—whether it was the British Government or Mr. De Valera—to take their Parliament from them once it was rooted in their soil. Well-meaning amateurs, he added, who asked them to make sacrifices should bring their proposals forward when the Ulster Parliament was established. The Press Association says it has good authority for stating that the suggestion of an Amending Bill based upon proposals agreed to by both sides would receive consideration.

RETREAT IN TIPPERARY.

A week's retreat for the women of the parish, conducted by Rev. Father Gleeson and Father Fallon, of the Jesuit Order, opened in St. Michael's, Tipperary, last Sunday. There was a very large congregation at the opening of the Retreat, and at the morning and evening devotions during the week the attendance has been entirely satisfactory. Confessions were heard daily, and after the Rosary each night instructive and interesting lectures were delivered.

SYMPATHETIC STRIKE AT GLASGOW.

HARBOUR PRACTICALLY AT A STANDSTILL.

Glasgow harbour is practically at a standstill to-day owing to a strike of dock labourers over the employment of non-union labourers to discharge Welsh coal intended for the Caledonian Railway. The dockers refused to handle the coal, in sympathy with the miners, and steamers have been lying up in Prince's Dock for the past fortnight.

About a hundred men were engaged on Thursday, and the discharging of coal from three steamers was commenced.

The docks are guarded by military and police.

A later wire says—Secret negotiations are in progress to bring the coal dispute to an end. Meanwhile the Transport Workers have officially refused to handle foreign coal.

DEADLY AMBUSH NEAR ANNACARTY.

POLICE-SERGEANT AND PRISONER SHOT DEAD.

About three o'clock yesterday a party of police, numbering about six or seven, in charge of Sgt. Kingston, left Cappawhite barracks and went in the direction of Newtown, a village situated between Cappawhite and Annacarty. As they approached the Protestant church they turned down a small lane, where they noticed a man with field glasses, whose presence aroused their suspicions. They then met a civilian, whom they took into custody, placing him amongst their own party. Continuing to advance, they had proceeded only a short distance when some of the constables noticed a man hiding behind a fence. There was a house near by owned by a man named Carey, and from the vicinity of this house a shot was fired, which was understood to be a signal of the approach of the police. The house was immediately surrounded, when the only occupant was found to be a boy, who asked them "for God's sake not to shoot him." The police merely looked into the house, and immediately returned to the main road, adopting defensive tactics.

Within a few minutes they were attacked and subjected to a hot fire from every side except the Annacarty direction. In the first volley Sgt. Kingston and the civilian were shot dead. The bullet entered the sergeant's right eye, and penetrated the brain. The civilian, who is unknown, is stated to have belonged to Co. Limerick.

AUCTIONEER CHARGED.

ADVERTISING A SALE IS BANNED.

A few days ago Mr. W. Toppin, auctioneer, Feltham, was served with a military notice to appear before a military court at Tipperary, where he was charged with having advertised a sale of live stock to be held at Drumrod, Cross, on Mr. P. Meagher's land, on the 2nd May, where auctions were forbidden in areas under martial law.

He pleaded guilty to advertising, but held he was within his right in doing so, and a plea of not guilty was entered.

Evidence of the posting of Martial Law notices in the Cashel area was given by a military officer, and

Mr. Toppin's defence was that in 1919, when prevented from holding sales in Feltham town, he held two sales at this same place, and was not prevented from doing so; he produced his books, posters and assistant to corroborate this.

The same military witness proved there were no restrictions on lots or sales in the district in 1919, and the Court fined the defendant £50.

PETITION ON BEHALF OF MITCHELS-TOWN PRISONERS.

On behalf of the two young Mitchelstown men recently tried by court-martial in Cork for the possession of arms, and stated to be under sentence of death, a petition, signed by clergy of all denominations, and persons of all creeds and politics in Mitchelstown, has been forwarded to the Lord Lieutenant.

ROMOURED SHOOTING NEAR BANSHA.

A rumour reached Tipperary this afternoon that the dead body of a man, who was apparently shot, was found in Kishane wood, near Bansha, earlier in the day. The body is stated to be that of a man named Devereux, an ex-soldier, and a native of Co. Kerry.

SEQUEL TO NENAGH SHOOTING.

There was much excitement in Nenagh last evening following the hold-up of military earlier in the day and the shooting of two miles. One was shot dead, and the other was so badly wounded that it had the be destroyed.

About four o'clock in the evening all the establishments in town were closed by order of the military. It being a holiday, there was a large number of people in Nenagh, but all quickly left, and the town soon presented a deserted appearance.

MAIL-CAR RAIDERS SURPRISED.

An official report issued on Friday afternoon says:—"At 6.30 yesterday the mail-car between Fethard and Clonmel was held up at Newtown, Fethard, by four or five masked men carrying revolvers. The mail-bags were taken and the horse shot. Police and military happened to arrive on the scene, and believing there was an ambush, opened fire, but the raiders escaped."

The rural postman at Kilsheelan was held up on Thursday and deprived of some correspondence.

FROM OUR DISTRICT CORRESPONDENTS

HOSPITAL.

Promoted.

It is announced that Mr. W. F. O'Brien, senior assistant at the Killarney branch of the Munster and Leinster Bank has been promoted teller. His many friends in East Limerick—whence Mr. O'Brien hails—will heartily congratulate him on his advancement.

FROM PUBLIC-HOUSE TO BARRACKS.

One night last week four or five young men from the Kiltelly district were discovered on licensed premises in that village during curfew hours. They were marched to Old Palms R.I.C. Barracks, where they were lodged for the night, but were released next morning for trial by a court of summary jurisdiction.

Mr. D. Ryan, Ballinaveen.

The many friends of Mr. D. Ryan, Ballinaveen, Emly, will be glad to hear that he obtained his certificate as creamery manager at a recent examination held by the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction. Mr. Ryan has been in charge of the Hospital Co-operative Creamery since its opening.

A Much-Regretted Death.

The death of Mr. James Jones, Ballinamonn, Hospital, has evoked the most widespread expressions of sorrow among his numerous friends in East Limerick and elsewhere. His quiet, kindly manner and straightforward character made him extremely popular with all who were acquainted with him. The sincerest sympathy will go out from a wide circle to his family and relatives in the great loss they have sustained. The remains, accompanied by a large cortege, were removed for interment last Saturday to Kiltelly graveyard.

Roads Blocked.

On Tuesday last all the main roads in the greater part of East Limerick were rendered impassable by large trees being felled across them. In some cases local labour was commandeered by Crown forces to remove the obstructions. Four young men returning from a funeral were arrested at the scene of one of these obstructions.

KILMALLOCK & CHARLEVILLE.

Youth Shot Dead by Military.

Last Sunday morning a youth named Joseph Cotter was shot dead near Lisacarrill, about 200 yards from his parents' house. The circumstances of the tragedy are not definitely known, but an unconfirmed rumour states that he was called on to halt by a party of military, and, failing to do so, was fired on. A Press Association message states:—"General Headquarters reports that Crown forces, while marching to prevent the destruction of a covert, encountered armed rebels one and a half miles north-east of Lisacarrill early on Sunday morning. The rebels were challenged, but made off, firing one or two shots. The fire was returned, resulting in one youth, named Joseph Cotter, being killed. The party is believed to have been a rebel advance guard, and the youth killed a guide to the party."

Bridge Destroyed.

On Friday night of last week a bridge running under the road near Thomastown Cross, in the Kilmallock district, was destroyed, and the main road between Charleville and Kilmallock rendered impassable. This road is frequently traversed by military traffic. It is also rumoured that other bridges in the Kilmallock district have been demolished.

Road Blocked.

The main road between Charleville and Kilmallock was blocked on Wednesday by a tree felled overnight at Garrienderik, County Limerick. Cars going from Charleville had to make a circuitous route to reach Kilmallock.

Linesmen Held Up.

On Friday, while repairing some telegraph wires between Herbertstown and Hospital, Post Office linesmen were held up by a number of armed civilians, who seized and took away all their tools. The leader of the party covered one of the linesmen with a revolver and compelled him to sever the wires which had just been repaired. As a result, telegraphic and telephonic communication between Bross and Hospital remains interrupted. It is understood that representations were recently made by people in the district to the Post Office authorities for the restoration of the service, which has been disconnected for some months past.

Youth Shot Dead near Charleville.

A report reached Charleville last night of another painful tragedy which took place on Thursday near Broadford, when a youth named John Stokes, aged about 15 years, a native of the Tullylease district, was shot dead.

Inquiries failed to elicit any definite information as to how the tragedy occurred. One report states that young Stokes was trying to avoid a section of a shooting party when he was killed. It is also stated that two or three civilians were wounded. The body was subsequently brought in a lorry to Newcastle-west barracks, where a military inquiry will be held. It is not known whether any arrests have been made.

GOLDEN.

The new parochial house is nearing completion, and in the capable hands of Mr. Barry, Bansha, the contractor, has risen an imposing structure. It is very conveniently situated to the church, and supplies a long-felt want in the parish. Up till now the curate for the time has been housed in a very rickety old structure, which saw better days. Father Michael McGrath and the parishioners are to be congratulated on the success which has attended their efforts in the matter. When all is said and done, the burden fell very lightly on the individual, and the generous donors in general will not miss their share of the cost. In years to come the help they gave will be a thing to be proud of. A good work has been well and nobly done.

Sales.

Messrs. N. Maher and Sons, the well-known firm of auctioneers, conducted some very important sales of Golden property in Tipperary on Saturday last on behalf of his clients, realising top prices both for land and house property, which fell under his hammer. The vendor is a very popular lady, Mrs. Blake, widow of the late Mr. M. P. Blake, and sister to Mr. James Fitzgerald, M.C.C., Rathclogh House. Mrs. Blake had previously purchased another extensive property in Cloughleigh—the centre of an important incident in the old land war in the early eighties.

Afforestation.

Owners of land should now open their eyes to the present value of home-grown timber, and what a valuable asset it is on the farm, apart from its intrinsic worth. No landscape is complete that is devoid of such ornamentation. Look around and see the waste land which abounds in this district, every square yard of which could be made productive. The useless ravines, growing nothing but tarze and heather, could easily and cheaply be made as profitable as a potato patch.

ALMOST 100 YEARS AGO.

WHO'S WHO IN KILMALLOCK AND CHARLEVILLE IN 1823.

Below we reprint from Pizzigoni's Directory of 1823 the names of the principal inhabitants of Kilmallock and Charleville in the year before (1823). (NEXT week we shall reprint the Directory)

KILMALLOCK

For post and fair town in the county of Limerick, is 108 miles south west of Dublin, 31 north of Cork, and 16 south of Limerick. Though now in a ruinous condition, it formerly made a conspicuous figure in the annals of Irish warfare, and the remains of its walls, together with those of many strong castles, ruined monasteries and decayed churches, still remain to testify to its former magnificence. Of this place, as of the ancient Palmyra, it may not be impudently said: how the mighty fallen! The pitying traveller may sigh, as he passes, at the recollection that here once stood the opulent and splendid Kilmallock. In 1808 it was invested by the Irish, but the Earl of Ormond compelled them to relinquish the siege. In the tumultuous times of 1641 the possession of this town was sharply contested by the insurgents, whose exertions were totally halted by the vigilance and military talents of the Lord President Carew. It formerly enjoyed distinctive municipal privileges, and with its extensive liberties constituted a separate county. Its consequence and trade are now annihilated, the shops are few and very small, and all that remains to it is a good inn, where every convenience and accommodation may be obtained. In the immediate neighbourhood of Kilmallock is Mount Coote, the delightful seat of Chidley Coote, esq.; there are also several others in the vicinity. Kilmallock has a charter for a market, but it is not held. The fairs are annually on the 21st of February, the 23rd of March, on Whit Tuesday, the 6th of July, the 8th of November, and the 14th of December.

CHARLEVILLE

Is a large and highly respectable market town, distance 112 miles south west of Dublin, 30 north of Cork, 20 south of Limerick, 14 north of Mallow, and 58 north east of Killarney, by Macroom. It is pleasantly situated on the confines of the county of Cork, and owes its establishment to Roger, first Earl of Orrery, and Lord President of Munster, who held his court here, and bestowed on its improvement a portion of that munificence, for which the noble family of Boyle has been eminently distinguished. Among other spirited acts was the liberal endowment of a free school, and a charter school. It was a corporate town, governed by a sovereign, two bailiffs, and twelve burgesses, and, until the union, returned two members to Parliament. Here is a court for the recovery of debts up to the amount of one hundred pounds and upwards, and there are weekly petty sessions.

The situation of the town was well chosen, as it stands on the great road leading from Cork to Limerick, in a very rich and fertile country, and possesses the advantage of being well supplied with water; its greatest want is that of fuel, which was probably little felt at the time of its establishment, when wood was in sufficient abundance. Charleville, however, under the disadvantage above mentioned, has been lately much improved; the markets are excellent, and the town is well furnished with good shops, for the supply of the adjacent country, as well as the inhabitants, among whom are many opulent residents. The church is a plain structure; the Catholic chapel a new, spacious, and commodious building. The market is held on Saturday and the fairs on the 10th of October and the 12th of November. At the distance of six miles from Charleville, on the road to Mallow, is situated the ancient town of Buttavart, formerly a place of very great note; its present wretchedness exhibits some vestiges of its religious buildings, now nothing more than a heap of ruins. The castle has been repaired by its present owner, Sir John Anderson, and is become an elegant and respectable mansion.

Post Office.—Post Master, Mr. Alexander Eyre Eddington. The Mail arrives from Limerick and Dublin on its way to Cork, at 17 minutes past two in the afternoon, and is dispatched on its arrival from Cork at quarter-past eleven in the morning.
