JUST THINK!

You Support Local Industry if you have your Printing done at the County Printing Works, Davis Street, Tipperary—now the only Printing Works in the Town. If all the Printing used in Tipperary which could be produced in the town were produced in it, we should be able to pay £70 or £80 a week in wages. And any Printing entrusted to us would be well done, and charged for fairly.

KILMALLOCK BOARD OF GUARDIANS.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

NOTICES OF MOTION.

At the last meeting of the above Board of Guardians Mr. Bernard Flynn presided, and there were also present Messrs. John McGrath, J. McGuire, J. Fitzgerald, and J. Morrissey. The acting clerk, Mr. P. J. Cleary, was also present.

The Late Mr. Coll.

The acting clerk reported the death, on the 6th May, of the clerk (Mr. P. J. Coll). Mr. McGrath—I am very sorry to hear it. He was a thoroughly efficient official, who did his work and did it well.

Mr. Fitzgerald—Indeed, that is so. Mr. McGrath—I regret occasion arises for me to propose the following:—We have heard with deep regret of the death of Mr. P. J. Coll, clerk of Kilmallock Board of Guardians for the past thirty-five years, and of the District Council since the start, during which time he always proved himself most efficient and capable in the discharge of his duties, and guided the members in their work by his deep knowledge of the working of the various Acts. He also endeared himself to both the members and the public by his affable and kindly manner, and we tender our sincere sympathy to his bereaved widow and members of his family in their sorrow.

Mr. Fitzgerald—I will second that resolution, and I am sure every member of the Board regrets Mr. Coll's death. During his long term of office here he endeared himself to everyone, and carried out his duties to the satisfaction of everyone.

The resolution was passed in silence, all the members standing.

The Late Mr. Sean Wall.

Chairman—It is my melancholy duty to propose a resolution of sympathy to the relatives of Mr. Sean Wall, chairman of Limerick County Council, a man well known to you all, and one whose untimely end will be regretted over the entire county. He was an upright man, who acted in the capacity of chairman of the County Council in a manner dignified and becoming. He was a man of ability, who used his ability for the benefit of the people. I propose:—That we have heard with deep regret and horror of the sad and untimely demise of Mr. Sean Wall, chairman of Limerick County Council, who, during the past year of office, proved himself a capable administrator of public affairs. By his death the country has sustained a national loss, as he was always in the front line for the advancement of its interests, and we are confident the country will never be unmindful of the debt it owes to his memory. Copies of the resolution be sent to the widow and brothers of the deceased, and a copy to be inserted in the minutes.

Mr. Morrissey seconded the motion. Other members having spoken, the motion was passed in silence, all the members standing.

Late Mr. Clery.

Mr. Fitzgerald said that he had a resolution of sympathy to propose in connection with the death of Mr. Charles Clery, as follows:—That we heard with deep regret of the sad demise of Mr. Charles Clery, son of Mr. Maurice Clery, Ballynamoolagh, Kilmallock, who for several years past was a worthy and respected member of this Board, and we wish to tender to Mr. Clery and family an expression of our sincere sorrow in their bereavement, and direct that copies of this resolution be forwarded to him, and also inserted in the minutes.

Mr. McGrath seconded, and the motion was passed.

Mr. Clery (acting clerk)—On behalf of the officials I desire to associate myself with the three resolutions of sympathy.

Notice of Motion.

Mr. B. Flynn handed in a notice that he would move at the next meeting that the doctors and officials in receipt of salaries be paid two-thirds of their salaries when acting as temporary substitutes, and that non-salaried substitutes be paid full allowance.

Mr. Flynn also handed in notice that he would move at the next meeting:—That the letter of the clerk dealing with the following matters be considered regarding the labourers' cottages in the Union district, namely, the total rental, the expense of collection, arrears due since the construction of the cottages, the number of cottages repaired for the half-year ending March 31st, 1921, the rental to hand, and the expenses incurred in the repairs.

The Board then adjourned without transacting any business as a mark of respect to the dead with whom sympathy had been expressed.

FORTY-FOUR BANDSMEN ARRESTED.

While the members of St. James's Band were at practice in their rooms in Bridge-foot street, Dublin, on Sunday afternoon, the premises were surrounded by military, and a large number of arrests were effected. The military arrived in three lorries at about 1.30 p.m., and one man was posted as look-out on the roof. The house was closely searched, the operations lasting until nearly 3.30 p.m. At the time about fifty members of the band were at practice, and forty-four of these were ordered into the lorries. Some other civilians who were in the building were arrested also, as well as two men who were on the street. AEROPLANE AND MILITARY STORES DESTROYED.

At about 9.40 p.m. on Monday night the Dublin Fire Brigade was summoned to Kingsbridge Station, and on arrival the firemen found two waggons belonging to a goods train well ablaze. The flames had made considerable headway, and there was no hope of saving the waggons. One of the waggons contained an aeroplane, and the other a quantity of military stores, including oil and petrol. The damage done is believed to be considerable.

1.—The houses of the following persons were destroyed on 13th and 14th May, 1921:—

Tipperary District.—Bryan Shanahan, Grantstown; Jas Carew, Golden Garden; Johanna Dwyer, Clonkelly; Patk. Corbett, Donohill.

Cashel District.—Wm. Reilly, Coolanga; T. Ryan, Turraheen; Cornelius O'Keefe, Glengau; James Grogan, Shanballyduff.

The contents of the houses of the following persons were destroyed on 13th May, 1921:—

Cashel District.—John Taylor, Cashel. Cahir District.—Mrs. Tom O'Gorman, Burncourt Castle; Mrs. Tobin, Tincurry House; Edmund Mulcahy, Coolagarranvogue; Pat MacCarthy, Drumlumin; Jas Slattery, Kilbeg; Robert Keating, Ballylooby.

2.—The destructions were ordered by Col. Commandant N. J. G. Cameron, C.B., C.M.G., A.D.C., Commanding 16th Infantry Brigade, and Military Governor, on the grounds that the persons concerned are active supporters of armed rebels and especially of the 3rd Tipperary Brigade of the Irish Republican Army, and that they reside in its area, and that the 3rd Tipperary Brigade has admitted responsibility for the brutal murder of District-Inspector G. N. Potter, R.I.C. (D.I. of Cahir), on or about 26th April, 1921.

3.—Before the work of destruction commenced, Notice "B" was served on the owner of each house telling him that his property was going to be destroyed, and the reason, and giving him one hour in which to clear out valuables and foodstuffs, hay or corn, but not furniture.

4.—In every case members of the family were in occupation and were given proper time to carry out their orders.

The houses were destroyed by explosives and in no case did fire result.

HOW THE HOUSING ACT OF 1919 CAN BE MADE WORKABLE.

(To the Editor of "The Tipperaryman.")

Sir, The operation of existing subsidy regulations entails in Belfast a rent of 13s. 1d. per week for a house costing £600.

Belfast asks for 35s. per £ rent, which, on a fully qualifying rent, works out at £6 4s. 1d. per cent., leaving £3 10s. 11d. per cent. to be met by rent, or £28 7s. 1d. (£11s. per week) for an £800 house.

In the case of the slum dweller in our country towns, I take 8s. per cent. to represent the "economic rent." Five shillings per week is a fair average to take as the rent-paying capacity in such cases, and under existing regulations the maximum subsidy obtainable (27s. 6d. per £ rent), £17 17s. 6d. per year, along with rent of £13 per cent., leave a deficit of £37 2s. 6d. per £800 house, even estimating the economic rent on the lower scale of 8s. per cent.

How the Act can be made workable—I respectfully submit that the anomalous subsidy regulation can be remedied and the necessary relief extended to the hard-pressed areas by giving a subsidy based on capital expenditure of £3 per cent. in ordinary cases, and £5 per cent. for re-housing of slum dwellers.

In a city like Belfast it is possible to make some progress under the 1919 Act; but it must be borne in mind that it is only where high rents are obtainable that the State-help is of any use.

By a proper application of the subsidy the Act could be made workable in all our Irish towns by a comparatively slight addition to the amount of assistance contemplated.

My proposals—Say 25 millions at 51 per cent., and 25 millions at 61 per cent., involves a yearly State subsidy of only £3,062,500.—Yours, &c., T. DAWSON.

SHIPMENT OF IRISH CATTLE TO GREAT BRITAIN.

The Department of Agriculture have been officially informed by the Ministry of Agriculture that the British Government have agreed to authorise their inspectors at Birkenhead, Glasgow, Manchester, and Bristol to issue licences for the movement of fat cattle out of the landing places to local slaughterhouses for slaughter thereat within forty-eight hours.

The Department have also been informed that the Ministry are making an order operating from to-day (20/5/21) adding Holyhead to the list of ports available for the arrival of stock cattle for quarantine from Ireland.

THE SHOOTING IN SPITTAL.

ALLEGED ATTACK ON MILITARY PICKET.

TWO TIPPERARY MEN CHARGED.

ONE ACQUITTED.

A Field General Court-martial assembled at Victoria Barracks, Cork, on Monday, for the trial of two civilians—Patrick O'Halloran, Scallagheen, Tipperary, and John Witheroe, Tipperary—who were charged with having, at Tipperary on the 28th November of last year, shot at members of a military picket with intent to commit murder.

Accused declined to recognise the Court, but reserved the right to ask questions for the benefit of the public.

A plea of not guilty was then recorded. An officer swore that he remembered the 26th of November last. On that night he was in charge of a town patrol, which left barracks about eight o'clock, and proceeded down the main street of the town.

A doctor stated that on the night of the 26th November a man brought his son to him for treatment. He had a gunshot wound in the shoulder.

A member of the patrol on the occasion stated that on the evening in question at Spittal street he saw two civilians moving about close to one of the public lamps, which was lighted at the time.

Another police constable gave evidence of a similar character. O'Halloran made a statement to the effect that witnesses for the prosecution had contradicted each other about the clothing that the civilians were wearing at the time they ran away.

Witheroe declined to make any statement. The Court found Witheroe not guilty of the charge, and O'Halloran was found not guilty of the second charge.

The findings in respect of the first charge against O'Halloran will be pronounced.

LIMERICK JUNCTION RACES.

OPENING DAY BAD FOR FAVOURITES.

The weather on the opening day of the Limerick Junction Meeting on Wednesday was beautifully fine, but the attendance was nothing like as large as at many previous fixtures here.

Treble Scotch gave his opponents such a bad beating at Clonmel that it did not appear that it would trouble him much to carry the extra few pounds successfully in the Sologhead Plate.

Several of the runners got badly away, including Prince Sable, Queen Times and Coracle. Yet another favourite was bowled over when Bright Hope was beaten into third place by Savvy and Exile Royal in the Stand Plate.

Thomas Moore, Grogan, Killemaule. Tried by Field General Court-martial at Limerick on 10th May, 1921. Four months' hard labour.

FUNERAL OF MISS BARRINGTON.

The funeral of the late Miss Winifred Barrington, only daughter of Sir Charles B. Barrington, took place on Wednesday from Glenstal Castle to Abingdon Cemetery, followed by a large gathering of friends and sympathisers from the city and countryside.

REMARKABLE TRIPLE SUCCESS.

The feature of the Limerick Junction Meeting on Wednesday, which was held in showery weather, and was fairly well attended, was the remarkable triple success in succession of horses owned by Mr H. J. Kirwan, trained by R. Moss and ridden by M. Beary.

The programme opened with eleven runners turning out for the Montague Plate, a mile and a half weight-for-age hurdle race.

Mr H. J. Kirwan's Aquatania, which ran well at Limerick in the race won by Some Dance, wound up in most request in the market, but there was plenty of money, too, for Mr J.S. Graham's Icoles and Mr A. Anthony's Olivenna.

Mr H. J. Kirwan's Flying Star wound up a very hot order for the Welter Handicap, run over five furlongs, and in the hands of M. Beary the filly made all the running, to win easily.

Mr G. Murnaghan, solicitor, Omagh, election agent, has received a copy of the following letter, which Mr A. Griffith has addressed to the Governor of Mountjoy Prison:

FROM OUR District Correspondents KILMALLOCK & CHARLEVILLE.

Death of Mr. McCarthy, Ballygiff.

The death of Mr. Michael McCarthy, Ballygiff, Kilmallock, took place on Friday morning of last week, at the age of seventy-six years. He had been in indifferent health for a considerable length of time, but, nevertheless, his demise was unexpected, and came as a shock to his family. Mr. McCarthy, who was a builder and farmer, was about up till a few days before his death. He was well known in Kilmallock and district as a decent and upright man of very obliging disposition. On Sunday afternoon took place in the family burial ground at Dromine, and the corpse, accompanied by the relatives to its last resting place, was large and representative. Amongst the chief mourners was Mr. J. McCarthy, Tipperary, son.

Shopkeepers Threatened.

The following is a copy of a typewritten notice posted recently on several show windows in Kilmallock: "Public Notice. Certain shopkeepers in the town have been asked to close their shops, apparently acting on the instructions of certain irresponsible persons who are well known to the authorities. Notice is hereby given that the owners of these shops, who refuse to close their shops, will be immediately closed, even days from this date. Therefore, get your stock in immediately. This is the wrong time for trading."

From the An.

On Friday of last week an aeroplaner hovered over Kilmallock at a low altitude, scattering leaflets, which were blown about the town in all directions, suggesting the formation of a committee, and asking persons concerned to come out and fight in the open.

Sympathy.

As a mark of respect and esteem to the memory of the late clerk, Mr. P. J. Coll, the members of Kilmallock Board of Guardians and District Council adjourned both meetings last week without transacting any business. Resolutions of sympathy were also passed to the relatives of the late Mr. Sean Wall and Mr. Cleary.

The Late Mr. P. J. Coll.

The late Mr. Coll belonged to an old and highly respected County Limerick family, and in his early days was a fine type of Irish manhood. Over thirty-five years ago he was appointed clerk of Kilmallock Union, during which period of office he showed his ability of the highest administration under a Government, and enjoyed, as he deserved, the respect and confidence not alone of the guardians, but of all classes of the community. Of a kindly, genial, and social temperament, he was exceedingly popular, and a great favourite with all who knew him intimately. Possessing a keen sense of humour, his ready wit marked him out as a most enjoyable personality, and often during heated exchanges between guardians in the board room, his unflinching good humour frequently triumphed in having the meetings conducted in a harmonious manner. His death, at the age of sixty-six, is deeply regretted, and the sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved widow and the members of his family in their sorrow.

Regret in Bruff.

There is widespread regret in Bruff and East Limerick at the death of Mr. Sean Wall, which occurred at Newtown, Anacarty, on Sunday of last week under the tragic circumstances already reported. The deceased, who was a county councillor for the Bruff division, was a gentleman in every respect, and rendered himself deservedly popular amongst all classes in the district. He was a great employer of labour, and was chiefly instrumental in having a lot of work done by organised labour since his inception as chairman of Limerick County Council. Had he survived the present crisis through which the country is passing he would undoubtedly have made a name for himself in the building line as a contractor, as he always showed wonderful skill and ability in any work undertaken by him. As a Nationalist he was most sincere in his views as regards politics. He leaves a widow and five young children to mourn his loss.

For Next Board Meeting.

There are two contentious matters down for discussion at the next meeting of Kilmallock Board of Guardians. They will be brought upon notice of motion, already handed in by Mr. Bernard Flynn. The first deals with medical officers' substitutes, whose remuneration for locum tenens duty is regarded as too high, especially in cases where a doctor already holds an appointment under the Board. The matter has already been informally discussed, and with the idea of putting it to a vote Mr. Flynn will formally move the matter. The other question is with reference to labourers' cottages, on which there is a large amount of arrears of rent due, the occupants in some cases refusing point blank to pay.

Charleville Races.

It is rumoured that a move is being made towards the holding of a race meeting in Charleville late this year. This one-time popular fixture should certainly be re-established. The course is a good one, and on its turf many a well-fought contest has taken place. The grand stand and other accommodation still exists, remaining visitors and the community of the former glory of the race-course. The financial outlay necessary to the re-establishment of the meeting should not be very formidable.

Train Service.

The train service to and from Charleville and Kilmallock have been greatly curtailed. Only two trains run each way daily to Cork and Dublin.

"The Tipperaryman."

"The Tipperaryman" is finding a ready sale in Kilmallock, and is already recognised as far and away the best local paper on sale in the town.

Charleville Post Office Raided.

During coffee hours on Sunday night Charleville Post Office was raided by persons unknown, and a quantity of correspondence seized. Access was made by breaking a window at the rear of the premises. Owing to the suspension of the night mail service none of the staff were on duty at the time, and the only correspondence taken was of an official character, and included letters posted in the town and country districts. Shortly before midnight coffee of the fire was heard in the vicinity of the police barracks and very lights went up. The origin of the firing has not been ascertained.

DUNDRUM.

The Ballybock Tragedy.

On Thursday evening, the 19th inst., a exciting patrol of soldiers from Dunderm Barracks approached Ballybock, district a young man named Michael Ryan, who was standing near his father's house, ran away at their approach. He was fired upon, and wounded fatally, but before being removed by Tipperary Military Hospital he was attended by the Rev. M. Ryan, P.P., Anacarty, who administered to him the rites of his Church. Death took place at an early hour on Friday morning. Deceased was a deservedly popular young man, quiet in manner, and of a deeply religious disposition. He was only twenty-four years of age, and his death, in the prime of manhood, has evoked feelings of widespread regret. A devoted son and kind brother, it is in the family circle his loss will be most keenly felt, and with his bereaved parents, brothers, and sisters there is deep sympathy. From its inception he took an active interest in the Volunteer movement. The funeral took place from St. Michael's Church, Tipperary, to Kilmallock graveyard on Saturday evening, and was of exceedingly large dimensions. As the remains were lowered into their last resting place many a tear was shed.

Post Office Raided.

Dundrum Post Office was raided by armed men at midnight on Sunday. A ruse was adopted by the raiders by which the unsuspecting postmaster was lured into the opening of the door, only to find himself confronted by armed men. The telephone apparatus was removed, after which the raiders took their departure, having apparently achieved their object.

Death of Master Willie Todd.

With regret I announce the death of Master Willie Todd, Anacarty, which occurred a few days ago. Master Todd, who was a very promising youth, had been ill for a brief period only. The funeral took place on Saturday last. With his sorrowing mother and sisters there is widespread sympathy. The death has occurred also of Mr. Michael Dineen, of Grafton, Anacarty, at a fairly advanced age.

CAPPAWHITE.

Carnahalla Creamery.

The amalgamation of the above creamery with Tipperary Co-operative Creamery, Ltd., is certain to be a great success. Mr. Patrick Leahy, Toomaline, Doon, has been appointed to work the separators in Carnahalla Creamery for the coming year.

Reprisal.

Following the shooting of Sergt. Kingston, R.I.C., Cappawhite, the furniture and other effects of Mrs. John Carew, Newtown, were completely burned by Crown forces.

Cappawhite Post.

There will be no post from Tipperary to Cappawhite on any Sunday in future until further notice.

A Round-up.

Following the big round-up in the mountain country in the neighbourhood of Cappawhite and Hollyford, it is stated that three young men were detained. One is Mr. Philip Ryan, creamery manager, Commonaline, and, so far, it is not known upon what charge, if any, he is in custody.

Fine Price for a Farm.

The farm owned by Mr. Michael Darcy, at Lacka, was sold in Doon on Monday at the high figure of £4,650, the purchaser being a neighbour, Mr. English. Mr. Darcy has recently purchased the farm of the late Mr.

Crowe, at Catten.

Bicycles Seized.

A number of bicycles were taken by members of the Crown forces in Cappawhite district on Sunday last. Some of the machines were, it is stated, returned to the owners subsequently.

A Purchase for Greenfield.

Mr. P. Quirke, jun., recently sold to Mr. Purefoy, Greenfield, at a big figure, a yearling colt by the well-known Greenfield sire, By George. This is Mr. Purefoy's second purchase from the same stock. Last year he bought a three-year-old of the same dam by the same sire.

The prohibition on fairs in Cappawhite for the spring months has been a serious inconvenience and a great loss to the village.

HOSPITAL NEWS.

Postman Relieved of Mails.

The postman conveying mails between Knocknag and Herbertstown was held up last Saturday morning by armed and masked men, who relieved him of all correspondence. On the following Monday morning the majority of the letters delivered were marked "Censored by I.R.A."

Ill in Prison.

Mr. Frank Neilson, who was sentenced to two years' penal servitude last January, in connection with the Limerick Harbour League, is lying in a prison hospital suffering from fever and trouble.

A Long Way to the Station.

The majority of the roads in the district which were blocked some weeks ago are now opened for vehicular traffic. The large trees which were felled on the main road to Knocknag have not yet been removed, with the result that carriers have to make a detour of about five miles to reach the station.

A Regretted Death.

It is with much regret that I announce the death of Mr. John Corbett, Hospital, which sad event occurred on Friday morning of last week. Deceased had been ill for some time, and his demise was therefore not wholly unexpected. Deceased was of a most amiable character, and his kindly disposition made him a favourite with all who were acquainted with him. To his relatives much sympathy is extended in their sad bereavement. At the funeral, which took place on Sunday morning to Knocknag graveyard, there was a very large attendance of the general public.

STORIES OF PRIZE FIGHTERS.

While the rest of the world is in the throes of revolutions, and what the Americans would call non-revolutions, prize fighters go on demanding more and more thousands from people who are anxious to see them punching at one another for an hour or less. It would be well if the public would once and for all boycott the large purse stunts, and allow prize fighters to come down to their proper level. However, be that as it may, stories concerning big fighters are popular, and we give our readers a few anecdotes as to the rise of some of the great boxers of the world, before Dempsey and Carpentier were awaiting hundred thousand pound purses to be thrown.

Nobody can become a topnotcher in the prize ring unless he has the natural requirements in his make-up.

John L. Sullivan's parents often declared that they intended their husky son for the church, but Nature made the big fellow a champion prize fighter. It was about the same with the parents of Jeffries. His father, who is a travelling preacher up and down the Western rivers, tried hard to have his big son follow in the same path; but again Nature stepped in, and declared Jim a gladiator. It is almost always the case that parents of pugilists are opposed to the fighting game.

When Sullivan was a young fellow in South Boston his father put him to work in a tin factory, to learn the trade of tinner. John had refused to study for the priesthood, and wanted to be his own boss. He developed a fondness for baseball, and at each dinner-time he would join his friends in a near-by lot. The boss of the factory was a big, burly fellow, who ruled the apprentices with an iron hand. When the whistle blew at one o'clock he would accept no excuse from the boys who were a few minutes late.

One afternoon Sullivan was so taken up with the ball-playing that he did not hear the factory whistle, and was about ten minutes late to the shop. With no word of warning the boss rushed at John L. like a cyclone, clouted him in the face and kicked him in the body. Like an infuriated tiger Sullivan turned, and shooting out his mighty fist, he landed on the boss's jaw, sending the latter flying through a window into the yard.

Sullivan's Punch.

Sullivan lost his job, but it was not long after that he became to be known as "the strong boy." The first time he ever put on a pair of boxing-gloves was at a variety entertainment in the Ludley street Opera House, to Roxbury, Mass. John attended the show not expecting to take part in it. But it so happened that a muscular young man named

Scannell came out on the stage and announced that he was ready to meet anybody in the house. Some of Sullivan's friends induced him to accept the challenge. So, after a parley, John clinched over the footlights. He had no boxing logs with him, but he just pulled off his coat, rolled up his shirt-sleeves, and drew on the gloves.

Sullivan and Scannell went at it hammer and tongs. In a mix-up John received a terrific blow on the back of the head. His eyes flashed fire, and he came back at his antagonist with a punch so hard that Scannell was knocked clean over the piano which was near at hand. That settled Scannell, and also started Sullivan on his pugilistic career. From that night on his sole ambition was to become a champion fighter.

Jim Corbett a Bank Clerk.

Jim Corbett began his bread-winning career as an employee of a bank in San Francisco, when he was only thirteen years old. As he grew into manhood he naturally took to athletics. He became a member of the Olympic Athletic Club, and, under Walter Wilson, a post master of the municipality, he soon developed into a clever boxer. His science was a natural quality, and it was not long before he had bested all the best sparring in the club. Corbett says that the night John L. Sullivan met George Robinson at the Mechanics Pavilion in Frisco he was the first person to pass the gates at five o'clock in the afternoon. He went early to get a seat close to the ropes and to avoid the howling mob that jammed the building that night.

"That was my first real lesson in practical professional pugilism," declares Corbett. "It was only a few years later that Corbett became one of the leading fight stars of the Pacific coast. When he was ordered to fight Peter Jackson, Corbett's father filed an objection to Jim's ambition to become a pugilist, and also his willingness to meet a pugilist in the ring. The old gentleman was fairly beside himself with rage over the match, and declared that he would have Jim arrested. But Corbett took his dad aside, and said—

"Now, father, I've signed articles to meet Jackson. True, he's a coloured man, and I appreciate your feelings, but I've signed the agreement, and can't get out of the fight without disgracing myself and losing the friend-ship, as well as the money, of a whole lot of good people. If you prevent me from fighting Jackson in Frisco, I will go to Australia and fight him. You wouldn't want me to go off into a strange country where I wouldn't receive fair play, would you?"

This was too much for the elder Corbett, who shook his head and walked away. Jeffries a Hammer Swinger.

Jeffries began his business career as a boiler-maker in Los Angeles. He was fond of swinging the heavy hammer, and soon developed great physical strength. Jim was never in the habit of looking for trouble; but when it was up to him he generally sailed in and won. Among his co-workers in the boiler factory he soon gained a reputation for his rugged and ready fighting ability, so that very few cared to cross his path.

One day a negro boxer visited Los Angeles with a challenge to meet all-comers. The boys in the boiler factory coaxed Jeff to take a chance with the dusky boxer. Jeff knew nothing of scientific boxing in those days, but he could rush and hit with the power of a mule-kick. So he tackled the darky, and after the latter had exhausted his strength in pounding Jeff's head and body, the big Californian rushed, and the negro was almost annihilated.

Then it was that Jeff got the prize-fighting bee, and left his job long enough to run up to Frisco, where he knocked out Dan Long, a local fighter of some reputation. Jeffries said he really learned how to fight when he was helping to train Corbett for the memorable battle at Carson City.

Tom Sharkey learned to box in Uncle Sam's Navy, which has turned out a number of pugilists. Tom gave up his deep-sea career when he had walloped the champion of the British Navy at Honolulu. After this triumph Sharkey immediately set sail for Frisco, which was then the Mecca of pugilism. He was a novelty in the fighting game, and was soon pitted against such stars as Corbett, Fitzsimmons, and Jeffries.

TWO PROMISING YOUNG MUSICIANS.

At the recent examinations of the Incorporated Society of Musicians, held at Loreto College, Stephen's Green, Dublin, the Misses Maureen and Breda Rahelly, twelve years of age, twin daughters of Mr. M. Rahelly, draper, Tipperary, gained first-class honours for the pianoforte, securing the very high marks of 93 and 94 each (out of a possible 100), being the highest in their grade.

BICYCLE ORDER ALTERED.

On Tuesday notices were posted in several windows in Tipperary, over the name of Major-General Strickland, commanding the 6th Division, and Military Governor, declaring that the proclamation prohibiting the use (under permit) of motor-cars, motor-bicycles, and pedal bicycles after eight o'clock p.m. is now altered so that they may be used up till 9 p.m.

TIPPERARY BOARD OF GUARDIANS.

THE OUTDOOR RELIEF CRUX.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

The fortnightly meeting of the above Board, held to-day, was presided over by Mr. Patk. Doherty, V.C., and there were also present Messrs. J. McCarthy, Paul McCormack, M. Kirby, Patrick Donegan, James Buckley, Thomas Toomey, and P. Ferris.

Outdoor Relief Crux.

Mr. M. Hogan, relieving officer, wrote under date 14th inst.: "I had no money this week for outdoor relief, but paid the recipients half on my own responsibility. The crux has now been reached, and if some provision is not made to-day there can be no further payments."

The Clerk suggested that they should refer the letter to the manager of the bank.

Chairman—That would be the best thing to do. Mr. Hogan has done his part; he can do no more.

The Clerk's suggestion was agreed to.

The Late Messrs. Duffy and Moloney.

Chairman—You are all aware since our last meeting our chairman, Mr. Sean Duffy, met his death. He was chairman of the board, and he is a great loss to us, and I propose the following resolution of respect:—"That we desire to place on record an expression of our most sincere regret for the untimely and lamented death of Mr. John Duffy, chairman of the board, and of Mr. Patrick Moloney, son of our esteemed and respected member of Parliament, which sad events occurred near Limerick Junction on the 1st inst. under circumstances under which we are only too painfully acquainted. During his short term of office and later Mr. Duffy proved himself an efficient and popular chairman, whilst Mr. Moloney, though not holding any public position, was a member of one of the oldest and most respected families in the district. That we now adjourn this meeting without transacting any business as a tribute of respect to

EX-SOLDIER'S BODY FOUND IN A QUARRY.

CARRICK-ON-SUIR MAN WOUNDED.

The dead body of an ex-soldier named Martin Dermody, Kilmallock, Co. Kilkenny, was found in a quarry on Tues. day. Michael Quinn, an ex-soldier, belonging to Carrick-on-Suir, and employed by a farmer at Oldtown, Kilmallock, was found in the same place seriously wounded. It is stated that at a late hour on Monday night both men were taken from their beds and marched to the quarry, where they were shot.

FISHING BY LIGHT.

An interesting sight was seen on the 19th inst. at the fishing boat "The Fish" had been fitted with a powerful lantern, and lowered into the sea, and was used to fish in the water. The lantern was used to attract the fish, and the boat was used to catch them. The lantern was used to attract the fish, and the boat was used to catch them.

PAPER PAILS.

A paper factory at Stranmore, New York, made paper pails at the rate of 500 a day. They were made by steaming rags and paper waste in vats for a few hours, then "beating" them in troughs with revolving knives, which reduced the rags to pulp. Paper pulp was then run in and blended with the rag pulp, and the mixture formed into pails on wooden moulds covered with zinc, and pressed on a machine like a silk-hat shaper. The pails were dried in a room kept at a temperature of 150 deg. Fahr., and afterwards "ironed" to smooth the sides. The bottom and handle were then added, and a waterproof composition painted over.

SELF-LIGHTING BEACONS.

In America a system of self-lighting beacons was introduced. Each beacon was furnished with a reservoir of sheet-iron containing gas under a pressure of fifteen atmospheres, and in quantity sufficient to light the beacon for three months, at the end of which fresh supplies were delivered to the beacon. A clockwork mechanism installed in the beacon turned on and lighted the gas at the hour fixed for the purpose. Several months' experience showed the advantage of the plan; the only attendance being a watchman on the shore to see if the beacons were properly lighted.

AN ANCIENT TREE.

There is a gigantic plane tree in the island of Co. Tradition says that Hippocrates held medical consultations beneath its shade. The tree stands in the marketplace of the town of Co., on the east side of the island, and its limbs, supported by wooden pillars, spread nearly over the entire market.

ANOTHER EXECUTION AT CORK.

LISCARROL MAN SHOT AFTER DRUMHEAD COURT-MARTIAL.

Daniel O'Brien, of Knockardbane, who was tried by Drumhead Court-martial at Cork Military Barracks on Saturday, was executed at the Detention Barracks at eight o'clock on Monday morning.

He was charged that he on May 11, 1921, was improperly in possession of arms, namely, one revolver, (2 near Lis-carroll, on same date being improperly in possession of ammunition, namely, 12 rounds of revolver ammunition, one of which had the top of the bullet cut off and slit.

The evidence for the prosecution was that accused was caught in a round up, and when searched the arms were found on him. Accused when asked to plead to the charges said: "I have no defence; I was caught as a soldier, and you can try me." The Court entered a plea of not guilty, and evidence was given. He was found guilty, and sentenced to be executed by being shot.

O'Brien was then taken to his cell in the Detention Barracks, where he was visited on Sunday by the chaplain, Rev. W. O'Brien, C.C., who spent two hours with him, giving him spiritual consolation. On Monday morning shortly after 7 o'clock Fr. O'Brien celebrated Mass in the Detention Barrack. The place of acolyte was taken by a military sergeant. Previous to the Mass Father O'Brien recited prayers before Communion Mass, at which the prisoner received the Blessed Sacrament in Holy Communion. Father O'Brien taking a crucifix from his pocket, said the Stations of the Cross, and then the Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary. He had just concluded the first decade when the prisoner was called on to go back to his cell. Here Father O'Brien imparted the Papal Benediction, and as the man walked to the place of execution Father O'Brien said the Rosary, the responses being given by the prisoner and the military sergeant, who had acted as acolyte. He walked to the end of the journey unaccompanied, continuing to say the Hail Mary, and met his death bravely.

There were no relatives of the executed man in the precincts of the barrack, but a group of young ladies were there some time before and knelt in prayer for the repose of his soul.

The memory of the deceased gentleman, and that the clerk be directed to forward copies of this resolution to Mr. P. J. Moloney, M.P., and to the relatives of Mr. Duffy."

Chairman I might point out, gentlemen, that the late Mr. Duffy got very few opportunities of acting as chairman of the board here, but when he did he proved to be efficient, capable, businesslike, and courteous to all, and justified his choice for the position.

Mr. Ferris—Hear, hear.

Mr. Ferris—Hear, hear.

Chairman—And I must say that he was a member of that fine body of men and women who were parading the streets of the town to-day, fighting against starvation for a living wage.

Mr. Donegan seconded the motion, which was passed.

Before adjourning, the meeting passed the following, on the proposition of Mr. Ferris, seconded by Mr. Donegan:—"That we tender to Mrs. Lamerigan, Jallynreevy, Pallasgreen, our most sincere sympathy in the great affliction she has sustained by the sudden and lamented death of her husband, the late Mr. John Lamerigan, who was for years an esteemed and respected member of the former Board of Guardians. That copies of this resolution be sent to Mrs. Lamerigan, and also to Dr. Russell, Banaha, brother-in-law of the deceased gentleman."

TIPPERARY No. 1 RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL.

A meeting of No. 1 Rural District Council held to-day was presided over by Mr. Patk. Doherty, and there were also present Messrs. P. Donegan and James Buckley.

Mr. Doherty proposed, and Mr. Buckley seconded, and it was passed—"That we adjourn this meeting without transacting any business as a tribute of respect to the sterling worth of Sean Wall (chairman Limerick Co. Council), Sean Duffy (chairman Tipperary Board of Guardians), and Patrick Moloney, youngest son of Mr. P. J. Moloney, T.D., our respected member for S. Tipperary."

ALLEGED AMBUSER ARRESTED.

An ambush near Gould's Cross is the subject of an official report. It says that at twelve o'clock noon on Tuesday a mixed patrol of military and police was ambushed at Cloon Cross, Co. Tipperary. There were no casualties to the Crown forces. One ambusher was arrested.
