Many Licensing Prosecutions.

The above court was held before Major Burke, R.M. (presiding) and Mr. H. Dickenson, R.M.

District-Inspector T. A. Ekins summoned Mrs. Mary Carroll, Bruff, for a breach of the licensing laws.

After the case had been called the D.I. said the police did not propose to proceed with it, the house having been conducted to the satisfaction of the police.

The case was according marked "No appearance."

Mary O'Connell, Shearin's Cross, was charged with a breach of the licensing laws by D.I. Ekins on the 19th August. Mr. J. J. Power, solicitor, Kilmallock, defended.

The District Inspector said this was one of the most barefaced breaches of the Licensing Act he ever came across. A police patrol from Bruff went out beyond the limit of their journey and came to this public-house at 10.45 p.m. on August 19th. The door was open, and on entry they found inside no fewer than eighteen men in the act of consuming pints of porter and other liquors. This public-house was neither in the Kilmallock Petty Sessions district nor the Bruff Petty Sessions district, and it was known as the "Half-way House." He submitted that this was a deliberate attempt to ignore the Act, and do away with the functions of the police altogether. He would ask the bench to inflict a very severe penalty on the publican.

An R.M. sergeant stationed at Bruff deposed to the facts as outlined. He found the following on the premises—James Dubig, John Bray, James Kelly, Thomas Kelly, James Carroll, Laurence Cleary, John Kelly, Michael Kelly, Jas. Cronin, John Wallis, Denis Wallis, Jas. Bray, John Hartnett, John Halpin, John McCarthy, Timothy Sullivan, and two others who gave false names.

The District Inspector said Timothy Sullivan refused to give any particulars about himself altogether. He claimed that as there was a truce the police had no right to ask for his name and address.

Mr. Dickenson—The point is: Did he give a wrong name?

D.I.—No, sir; he did not.
 The sergeant said the men gave no excuse. The publican said they came in, and she did not like to put them out. The licence was in her name.

Mr. Power—Who made the excuse?—Mrs. O'Connell.

Was there any clock in the shop?—Yes, and it was 10.30 by that.

Mr. Power—I hope you did not fix your watch by the Kilmallock post office clock. (Laughter.)

Replying to further questions by Mr. Power, the sergeant said Mrs. O'Connell had not been the public-house very long; it was very well conducted before by Mr. Moloney.

Mr. Power said the District-Inspector had opened the case with undue gravity. He would show that it was not an outrageous breach of the law. They should take into account the occasion on which this thing occurred. It was just about the beginning of the truce. These people were after a hard day's work at harvesting, and just turned in to have a drink. It was merely a technical breach of the Act.

Mr. Dickenson—It is a very long day when people can't get a drink before 10.10 at night.

Mr. Power—Well, I would ask you to deal with it in the spirit of the times.

The District Inspector said the house had been well conducted in the past. After consideration, Major Burke said they would deal very leniently in fining the publican 2s and costs. If the police had been satisfied the house was badly conducted the case would have been more severely dealt with.

The cases against the men found on the premises were then taken up. John McCarthy was the only one who appeared in court. He was fined 2s. 6d. and costs.

The case against Timothy Sullivan was then dealt with.

The District Inspector said he was the man who gave the most trouble.

A fine of 10s. and costs was imposed.

Each of the other defendants was fined 7s. 6d. and costs.

Mrs. Bridget Nealon, Bruff, was charged with a breach of the licensing laws on July 24th.

Mr. Roger Fox, solicitor, defended. District-Inspector Ekins prosecute.

Sergt. Mullen said he knocked at the door of the licensed premises of Bridget Nealon at 8.15 p.m. on Sunday, July 24th. He was delayed, and on listening heard a footstep in the hall. There was a letter-box on the door, and he lifted up the slide, when he saw Mrs. Nealon put out three men by the back door. These men were E. Meaney, John O'Connor, and Geoffrey Martell. He followed them, and saw them going over a wall. Two of them got into the churchyard. Witness went back to the premises. Mrs. Nealon opened the door, and said the men were not on the premises, and then asked: "Did these men tell you they were on the premises?"

Major Burke—Did you see the men yourself?—Yes; I saw them through the letter-box.

Mr. Fox—Did you see inside a number of people who were bona fide travellers?—Yes, after the others had left.

How many did you see after you came in?—About twelve travellers.

Did you say anything then to Mrs. Nealon about these three men?—I asked her why she let them out.

If you were sure at the time that you saw these three men on the premises why did you not say, "Why did you let Meaney, O'Connor, and Martell out?"—I did not think it necessary. I saw them there.

Did you follow them out?—I followed them a distance, but could not catch them. I saw them going from Nealon's yard into Mr. Bourke's land, over the wall.

Did you turn back then to Mrs. Nealon's?—Yes.

Did you then charge her about these three men?—No.

At the time you saw them on the premises, and when you entered the premises, you never charged her with having these three men by name?—No.

And, having seen them, you never came back and alleged that she had had them on the premises?—No.

Replying to further questions, witness said the hall was pretty long. The back door was further down the hall, and he could see the men, one by one, as they came out from the bar into the hall. He clearly identified the three men.

Did you meet a man named Michael Herr and challenge him with being there?—No. I was not speaking to him about being on Nealon's licensed premises.

The sergeant stated he brought the three men back to the public-house. They made no statement.

Mr. Fox—At any time did they say anything?—No.

Did you state, when you knocked, that you were a policeman on duty?—Yes. She came out to the hall first when she heard the knock, and went back again. She then let the three men out at the back door, and came back. It took about five or six minutes altogether.

Did she take about five or six minutes to go back to let out these men?—District-Inspector Ekins—Yes; to help them to get away.

Constable Dominick corroborated the last witness.

To Mr. Fox—The first place I saw them was in Mr. O'Rourke's field. I did not see them in Mrs. Nealon's house at all.

The Bench imposed a fine of £1 and costs.

Major Burke said these fines were merely nominal, and if there was a repetition of the offence they would be more severe in the future.

The defendants Martell, Meany, and O'Connor, for being on the premises, were each fined 7s. 6d. and costs. They did not appear in court.

District-Inspector Ekins summoned Norah O'Flaherty, Bruff, for a breach of the licensing laws on Sunday, August 21st.

Mr. R. Fox, solicitor, defended.

Sergt. Murphy deposed to being on duty in Bruff on August 21st. He sent two men around to the back door of the licensed premises and went to the front himself. He knocked, and on getting no response knocked again, and called out that he was a policeman on duty. Mrs. O'Flaherty then opened the door, and said the door was a bit stiff.

A constable said he saw two men running across the yard of the public-house. He questioned the men, and they admitted that they were on the premises to get a drink. She denied that they were on the premises. He saw two pint glasses on the counter. The bar presented signs of recent drinking.

Replying to Mr. Fox, witness admitted that if bona fide travellers had been served during the day the bar would present that condition. The men admitted having been in the house.

Did they say they came looking for drink?—Yes.

Did they say they only came to the back portion?—No; they said they were on the premises, but they got no drink. The time of the offence was 2.35 p.m.

Constable Crowl, Bruff, said he was on patrol duty on August 21st with Sergt. Murphy. They had occasion to go to the premises occupied by Norah O'Flaherty. Sergt. Murphy gave witness instructions to go to the back of the premises. They went into Mrs. O'Flaherty's garden, and when passing through the wall of the public-house yard two men appeared in front of them. Witness detained the men, and took them back to Sergt. Murphy. The men were running from the yard to a wall which was about ten or twelve feet from the back door. They came out from the wall into the garden. They did not get over the wall. Mrs. O'Flaherty was in the bar at the time. He did not see these men in the bar at all. They said they were coming for drink, but did not get it.

Mr. Fox said his case was that these men came to the back door looking for a drink, that Mrs. O'Flaherty refused them, and they went away. The men were not found in the bar. There was nothing to prevent them from coming to the garden to the back looking for drink.

Mrs. Norah O'Flaherty deposed that on Sunday, August 21st, after dinner, two men came to the back door. She heard a knock at the front door, and opened the back door and saw the two men there. They left the back as she told them to go away. She had no drink on that day, only bottled stout. She gave drink to some travellers going to Carrigren races, and a few friends from Kilmallock. She came to the front door and admitted the sergeant. The two constables were coming in with the two men. The sergeant asked them, in her presence, what brought them there. They admitted being there looking for a drink. She did not let them in. The back door leads into the kitchen, and another door leads out to the garden.

District-Inspector—There was a certain amount of delay between the time the knock came to the front door and the time you opened it?—No, the glass door was opened when the sergeant knocked, and I had to tie it back.

Mr. Fox—These men were in the yard, but it cannot be evidence against the publican if they were there without her concurrence.

Major Burke said they were not found actually on the premises, and there was no case against the publican. The case was dismissed on the merits.

Hugh Keating and Patrick Byrnes, the two men found on the premises, were fined 7s. 6d. each and costs.

Sergt. John Carroll summoned Michael Herr for having been drunk and disorderly in Bruff on June 29th.

Fined 5s. and costs.

A number of persons were summoned by Sergt. Carroll for having no light on their vehicles after lighting-up time. Fines of 2s. each and costs were imposed.

Constable Gibson summoned John O'Connor, Ballygreennan, for drunkenness on May 12th. Fined 2s. 6d. and costs.

The same complainant summoned James O'Connor for having been drunk and disorderly on May 12th. Fined 2s. 6d. and costs.

Sergt. Murphy summoned Paul Quinlan for having two unlicensed dogs in his possession on May 24th.

The sergeant said the excuse the defendant gave was that no one around was paying for dogs, and he was not going to do it.

Fined 10s. and costs, and ordered to take out licences forthwith.

Sergt. Murphy summoned Daniel Keating, Tullybracken, for allowing six horses to wander on the public road. John Keating, who appeared, said only

TIPPERARY No. 2 RURAL COUNCIL.

The County Surveyor's Report.

Danger of Bushes on Roadsides.

The quarterly meeting of the above council was held on Tuesday at Pallasgreen, and was presided over by Mr. James Buckley. Also present were Messrs. E. O'Dwyer and P. O'Kennedy.

Messrs. R. Davison (Co. Surveyor), P. Harrington (Asst. Clerk), and T. Raleigh, R.S., were also in attendance.

Co. Surveyor's Report.

The following report was submitted by Mr. R. Davison, Co. Surveyor—

"The roads in this district are in sound condition with few exceptions. Extra labour had to be obtained, and such expense incurred in getting out the material owing to the want of explosives, as the quarries at Oola, Carrigmore, Lisnaculla, Garrybois, and Knocknasroly could not be used to any great extent, and therefore supplies had to be carted long distances from Linfield, Quirke's, and Drumlora quarries, but this is compensated for, in a way, by the superior quality of the stones thus obtained. About 80 per cent. of the roads are now furnished with material, and I hope to have all supplies finished before the end of September.

New Works—No list of new works is to hand, and I have no proposals to make for new works. I have to add to my report that my estimate of road expenditure for the year ending March 31st, 1923, is £5,109, leviable off your district, and including the amount to be levied off your district in respect of main roads, thus:—Main road estimate, £3,066; district road estimate, £2,043.

Chairman—There is a quarry on Mr. Kennedy's land at Crosse, and if you (Co. Surveyor) obtained that it would be an advantage.

Co. Surveyor—The quarry at Linfield is a far superior one.

Chairman—But look at the cost incurred by carting the stones from Linfield.

Co. Surveyor—But you have a far superior quality of stones, which would bring in the loss. This matter was before the County Council.

Mr. O'Kennedy—If the stones were good, and near at hand, there would be a great saving.

After further discussion the report was adopted.

Hedge Cutting.
 With reference to the above the Co. Surveyor wrote:—"I beg to draw your attention to the serious encroachment on many of our public roads caused by overgrowth of bushes, briars, and trees, resulting in great inconvenience, and sometimes danger to the public. I should like a direction to the County Council as to what course should be adopted where persons may refuse to comply with the request."

The Chairman said it was very dangerous to have bushes protruding across the fences, especially where there were footpaths. If there was a wind blowing they would injure a person's face and eyes.

The Co. Surveyor concurred.

Mr. O'Kennedy said they should be cut on all the roadsides.

An order was made directing the cutting of bushes on the roadsides, and the business terminated.

FARMERS PURCHASE ESTATE AT LORRHA.

P.P.'s Good Work.

Mainly through the exertions of Rev. John Gleeson, P.P., of Lorrha, 800 acres of land, the property of the representatives of the late Mr. W. T. Trench, have been sold to a large number of young farmers of the district. The land is free of rent for ever, and the purchase price paid was £12,500. About sixty acres have been reserved for the labourers working on the estate. Father Gleeson is also negotiating for the sale of the adjoining Stoney and Tollemache estates.

one of the horses belonged to him. The other five were his brother's.

A fine of 1s. and costs was imposed on John Keating, and 5s. and costs on Daniel Keating.

DRUMLINE SPORTS AND HORSE RACES.

DRUMLINE AND GOOD SPORT.

Drumline was on the 1st Sunday, 17th Sept. about four miles from Tipperary, and one from Ballydoon, in a picturesque route, with the Galtees in view on one side, and Slievenamon away in the distance to the southeast. There was a large and varied programme to be got through, comprising athletic events, cycling, and horse-racing, which proved very interesting, and the success attending the entire undertaking surprised the hundreds of spectators who spent a thoroughly enjoyable day on the Drumline downs.

Tipperary town turned out well, and the countryside all round about was strongly represented, the visitors finding their way to the resting place per sevens' man, and on all kinds of vehicles, from donkey cart to motor-car. The road was literally black with people as I pedalled, or rather, struggled—along on my old Swift, forging my way as best I could through clouds of whirling dust disturbed by the traffic from its bed in what should be macadam, and at times taking up such a tremendous amount as to attempt to choke or suffocate me. But who was to blame? It was not the weather, nor was it those who were shareholders in the King's highway the same as myself. Why didn't I start earlier, or take the circuitous route by Bansha under the shadows of the Galtees, through a stretch of country, valleys, groves, and sea-land combining to make a picture as fair as any?

The scenery along the Drumline road lacks the interest of a run through Kilsnane, where the "wild deer wanders free," and hundreds of rabbits jump and frisk about.

The railway line runs parallel with the Drumline road for a considerable distance, and served as a "short cut" for the knowing pedestrians with local geographical knowledge. However, having travelled about four miles, I reached the venue at 2.30 p.m. There was a good crowd already present, and masses of people were still flocking in from all directions. The field was dotted over with stands, and vehicles of different kinds, and what particularly took my fancy was the large numbers engaging in games of chance, and what surprised me much was the easy familiarity of the professionals, as exemplified in their invitation to "Dr. Mick" to speculate "a few coppers" to, as they enticingly suggested, make his fortune. "Under and over seven," the most favoured game, played with ingeniously home-made dice and an unostentatious pepper-cup, I let pass the opportunity of becoming a millionaire, and, moving along, had not proceeded far when another member of the same fraternity yelled after me: "Come here till I rob you." I declined this less specious invitation also.

The fixture was thoroughly successful from every point of view, and not for many years have I seen so large a number of competitors face the starter at a country sports. But what else could be expected in a locality which is the home of some of the best athletes in Ireland? The proprietor of the field in which the sports were held—Mr. Maurice Morrissey—was himself amongst the champion winners of Munster some years ago, and can boast of some extraordinary feats. On different occasions he worked on his farm from five o'clock in the morning until nine o'clock, and then, going to Clonmel or elsewhere, beat all-comers in different athletic events. His name as that of an athlete of the first water is well and popularly known throughout Munster. Then we have Mr. Ryan, of Drumline, the champion long-distance runner of Ireland, who was present, and did more than a man's part in making the meeting a success; and Mr. D. Fogarty, the champion hurdler and two-handed yards man, who acted as starter and other lesser lights—all residing in the district.

The arrangements were excellently made, and the field kindly and gratuitously given by Mr. Morrissey was suitable in every respect for the different events. Too much praise cannot be given to Messrs. Lonergan and Nunn for their excellent work in the perfecting of details, and I am sure it is gratifying to them to know that the public who were present appreciated their efforts. Next year this sports meeting will be held under G.A.A. rules, and, judging from last Sunday's gathering of spectators and competitors, it will be one of the leading re-unions in Tipperary. The proceeds of the gate (at 6d. per head) amounted to £38 odd.

The Bansha Pipers' Band attended and discoursed a selection of suitable music. A large number of Volunteers were on duty at the gate and in the enclosure, and gave great assistance to the committee in keeping order. Details:—

G.A.A. NOTES.

BALLYLANDERS TOURNAMENT.

Good Hurling and Football Exhibition.

On Sunday had a very successful hurling and football tournament was held in Ballylanders. The day was delightful for outdoor games, although threatening in the earlier portions. There was a large concourse of people, which would have been much larger only for a counter attraction in the neighbourhood. It is a matter of regret that fixtures of this character so often clash, with the result that each suffers, and a feeling sometimes of hostility is created, which would have been avoided if a bit of common-sense had been shown. Those who are responsible for organising tournaments, etc., would do well to provide against clashing.

In football Ballylanders Shamrocks were opposed by Mitchelstown Stars. This was a first-class exhibition, and worth going a long way to see. The Ballylanders team were playing under a heavy handicap as practically all their best players were missing owing to circumstances over which they had no control. However, substitutes were procured, and they played a right rattling game throughout, and deserved their win. Mitchelstown were a fine, strong, evenly-balanced team, with plenty of go and dash, and were rather unfortunate to lose. Mitchelstown furnished the opposition against Tipperary in hurling. The match was a good one. Both teams appeared to be in the want of practice; nevertheless they gave a good display, and the issue was fought out to a finish.

The Ballylanders Football Club are to be congratulated on the efficient lines on which they organised the tournament, and the admirable arrangements they had made, not a hitch or incident occurring to mar a day of genuine pleasure, and everybody left Ballylanders on Sunday night thoroughly satisfied with the programme, and we hope it is only the forerunner of many other such days' amusement to be furnished at the same venue. Details:—

Football.

Mitchelstown got possession of the throw-in and worked down, but a wide was the result. From the kick-out Ballylanders got going, and were soon attacking, but were repulsed. Some splendid work in midfield followed, and Ballylanders were put on the defensive until a free brought relief. A series of touches followed, and Ballylanders became aggressive, but were unable to get through. The Mitchelstown backs were playing very sound and clever football. Play was now confined to midfield, in which the kicking and catching was very clean. Ballylanders backs again got busy, and came through the effort creditably. A well-timed movement enabled them to set up a hot attack, which was repulsed. Mitchelstown got away on the right wing and, getting a free close in, were placed in a good position, but failed to score. There was now a fierce attack on the Ballylanders' quarters, in which some brilliant football was displayed, but the result was a wide. From the goal-kick Ballylanders worked into their opponents' territory, and brought off a minor, which gave them a lead. The play was now very fast and, with only a few minutes to go, Mitchelstown made desperate efforts to equalise, but were unsuccessful, and Ballylanders came out winners of a very hard-fought contest by one point.

Ballylanders—2 goals 2 points.
Mitchelstown—2 goals 1 point.

Ballylanders—Osborne, Davern (3). Condon, Crawford, Walsh, Maguire, Kiely, Howard, O'Connell, Lyons, McNamara, Smith, Dwyer.

Hurling.

Tipperary opened the scoring early with a point from a free. Mitchelstown invaded, and there was a hot tussle in the Tipperary territory, but nothing came of it. Tipperary got going along the left wing, and a wide saved the Mitchelstown goal from danger. Mitchelstown was awarded a free in midfield, from which a goal was secured. This made things lively, and Tipperary, rushing matters, forced a 75 yards free, from which a point was scored. A wide spoiled a fine effort by Tipperary. The play up to this had been fairly good, and it was apparent that the players were suffering from want of practice. The Tipperary goalman brought off a good save from a free, and hard play on Mitchelstown right wing resulted in a wide. Mitchelstown got possession from the puck-out, but their efforts to score were frustrated. Tipperary got a free close in, but same was cleared. The Mitchelstown goalkeeper effected some splendid saves. The Mitchelstown forwards made a determined attack, and were rewarded with a minor. The game was pretty fast now. Both sides were pressing in turn, and a number of wides resulted. The score at half-time was Mitchelstown—1 goal 1 point.

Tipperary—2 points.

On re-suming Tipperary pressed, but the Mitchelstown backs cleared. Tipperary attacked again, and the Mitchelstown goalkeeper again shone out. Tipperary kept up the attack and got through for a goal. Both ends were now visited, the centre men and wings doing some good work. The Mitchelstown goalkeeper was called on again, and was again equal to the occasion. A series of attacks by Mitchelstown was repulsed. Tipperary was again in possession and notched a further point. From the goal puck Mitchelstown raced down, and keeping up the pressure secured a goal. This was quickly followed by one for Tipperary. Mitchelstown were pressing from the puck-out, and the Tipperary backs were in difficulties, from which they succeeded in extricating themselves. Good open play followed, and there was a series of wides. Another goal came to Tipperary after a stubborn struggle. Mitchelstown drove wide from a free. The long whistle sounded leaving Tipperary winners. The score standing:

Tipperary—3 goals 3 points.
Mitchelstown—2 goals 1 point.

LOURDES AND HEDNESFORD.

DOUBLE NOVENA OF MASSES AND PRAYERS FOR ROSARY SUNDAY AT THE GROTTTO.
SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

Dear Lovers of Our Lady of Lourdes,
It was the dying wish of the late Father Boyle that the Novenas which he had instituted in our Blessed Lady's honour should continue, and that the building of the church which his love had planned should be proceeded with as soon as sufficient funds are in hand.
To carry out this twofold work of piety towards the Blessed Mother of God, I have been called by the Voice of Authority. His Grace the Archbishop of Birmingham has appointed me Parish Priest of Hednesford. The choice made by His Grace is wonderful to me. I can account for it only by a fact which I have jealously kept as a secret: that for years, whenever the rubrics allowed, I have said a Votive Mass in honour of our Lady of Lourdes.
I am going to Lourdes to offer the Novena Masses at the Grotto myself, and to make a special consecration of myself to Our Blessed Mother in the work I am called upon to do.
I beg the prayers of all lovers of Our Lady of Lourdes, and if any send me their petitions before Sunday, the 18th September, I will take them with me to the Shrine.
The Novena of Masses and Prayers at Lourdes and Hednesford will begin on September the 24th, and end on October, the 2nd Rosary Sunday.
Hence due notice will be given of the Novenas as they occur.
Full particulars next week.
Yours devotedly in Christ,
(Rev.) JOSEPH PATRICK HEALY, Hednesford, Staffordshire.

973 PIG MEAL; A Calf and Cattle Meal

Barley Meal alone is not a perfect food. Though high in carbohydrates, it is low in oil and albuminoids. We are making up a meal consisting of 48 per cent. good kiln-dried barley, 10 per cent. of the best fish-meal low in oil, and the balance of 48 per cent. of imported food stuffs.
An ounce of practice is worth a ton of theory. Seeing is believing. The proof of the pudding is in the eating.
A TANKARDSTOWN FARMER writes:—"Send me half a ton of the same Pig Meal as you sent my neighbours."
Another Farmer writes:—"I put in a pen of slips with their backbones sticking through their backs. After feeding them for a fortnight on your meal I did not know them. In four weeks and three days from putting them in I sold them, weighing 13 stone each."
Analysis—64 per cent. oil and 162 per cent. albuminoids.
Also a first-class Calf and Cattle Meal suitable for dry or wet feeding. This Meal contains 9 per cent. oil and 18 per cent. albuminoids.
Terms—
Pig Meal - 14/- per cwt.
Calf Meal - 15/- per cwt.
Cash with Order.

G.A.A. NOTES.

HURLING AND FOOTBALL.

All matches in the Southern Division have been declared off, consequently the matches fixed for Clonmacnoise on Sunday are postponed. The hurling match, in my opinion, should be allowed to go on, as it was the final for the division. The other grades are backward, and it does not make any great difference. It would be better, in fact, not to complete them, but start with a new sheet. It is hoped the ban will soon be removed, and that in the meantime the players will continue practising.
It is uncertain now whether the match between Tipperary and Waterford will be played at Dungarran on Sunday week. This match was originally listed in 1920.
In Thurles.
Tipperary and Limerick crossed camms on Sunday in a friendly match. The hurling was very keen and scientific throughout. Tipperary are in possession of a splendid combination this year. Limerick are also possessed of a first-class fifteen, and when they meet Cork they should reverse the result at the Markets field for the final of the Munster championship last year. There was very little to choose between them, and the closeness of the play may be judged from the fact that when the final whistle sounded only one point separated them.
Suggested Competition.
Now that the ban is on, would it not be well if the preliminaries for a local competition were gone into? A series of home-and-home matches could be arranged between Bansha, Oola, and the two clubs in town in football, and in hurling between Tipperary, Solohead, Donohill, and Golden. Some of these clubs have ceased to exist, but with a little encouragement could be easily revived. The competition would not entail any great difficulties in the carrying out. It would be a great benefit for players, as there is no better asset of a team than the experience gained in matches. Perhaps the teams mentioned, or anybody interested in the suggested competition, may have something to say about it, and "The Tipperaryman" will be only too pleased to give all the assistance it can for the formation of such a competition.

THE BRITISH INVITATION.

Will the Dail Accept It?

The Press Association, wiring at noon to-day (Friday) says:—
It is stated that Mr. De Valera will possibly meet his Cabinet colleagues in Dublin this afternoon; but the reply to the Government's invitation is not expected to-day.
There is a strong belief in London that the Irish leaders will accept the Premier's invitation.

OPINIONS IN DUBLIN.

Our Dublin correspondent wires:—
Mr. Lloyd George's reply to Sinn Fein has created a good impression in Dublin. It is regarded as an invitation to Sinn Fein to come and discuss the difficulties of the situation in an informal and unbinding way. With certain reservations it is considered likely that Sinn Fein will accept the invitation, and Dublin is essentially optimistic of a settlement.
The meeting of the Cabinet of Dail Eireann will, it is believed, discuss the letter to-day, and possibly determine what reply they will make.
Though Mr. De Valera was not at the Mansion House this morning, a number of other Ministers were in attendance, and were busily employed.
A large crowd waited without the building, but nothing official could be learned as to time and terms of the Dail's reply.

POLICE AND UNEMPLOYED IN CONFLICT.

At Sunderland to-day the unemployed attempted to break through a police cordon. The latter charged, and the streets were speedily cleared. Half a dozen demonstrators were treated at the hospital for scalp wounds.
STROLLING PLAYER'S MYSTERIOUS DEATH.
The dead body of a man was found in a field near Box tunnel, Bath, to-day, with terrible injuries to his head. The cause of death is a mystery.
The deceased was recognised as a strolling player who was playing in Box village last evening.

THE CAMBRIDGE MURDER.

Accused's Exchange of Coats.

Thomas Clanwaring was again charged at Cambridge to-day (Friday) with the murder of Alice Maud Lawn.
The Mayor of Cambridge gave evidence of giving prisoner a permit to sell postcards of himself as one who had lost and regained his speech. Other witnesses spoke to giving prisoner money.
Albert Briggs said he met prisoner on the day of the crime, and changed coats with him, accused saying he wished to look respectable as he was going to the pictures.
Prosecuting counsel said prisoner's coat had been considerably cut about for obvious reasons, but no blood had been found on it.

A BELATED RESUMPTION.

The colliers at Tirdonkin Collieries, Swansea, idle since the start of the last coal stoppage, resumed work to-day (Friday). Following on the national agreement, difference arose over the wage rates.

RECORDS AT THE GREAT LOCAL MEETING.

THE PERSONNEL OF THE COMMITTEE.

By "Dr. Mick."

The members of the committee of the memorable Tipperary meeting, whose names I have already mentioned, in the interval of thirty-four years have been scattered far and wide, and some, I regret to say, have joined the great majority, leaving the heritage of a good name behind. I am indebted to an old Tipperary sport, whose memory, I hope, will never become impaired, for the following particulars regarding them.

Dr. Conway (chairman); dead. He was medical officer of Tipperary dispensary district.

Mr. Frank Dineen, handicapper and starter; died about ten years ago.

W. H. Carroll was captain of the Tipperary Rugby football team which ran at one time into the final for the Munster Cup. He was familiarly known as "Gully." Now manager of the important Waterford branch of the Munster and Leluster Bank.

James Murphy; dead. His widow and family carry on an extensive business in James' street, Tipperary.

Patrick McGrath; still hale and hearty; living in Henry street. He was in his early days looked upon as the best organiser and amongst the best sports in the South of Ireland.

Joseph Gubbins; clerk of Tipperary Union; rendered yeoman service in the early days of the G.A.A. movement, and filled many roles—organiser, competitor, etc.

John Cullinan, ex-M.P.; dead. A Gael amongst Gaels. His memory will long be green in Tipperary, where his sportsmanlike qualities were universally admired.

Daniel Kelly. A prosperous merchant in Davis street. For many years chairman of the Urban Council.

J. Quane; was home recently from America on holiday; has returned to the land of his adoption.

Dr. Moloney; dead; was medical officer of Golden dispensary district; one of the finest men who ever donned the athlete's garb; made a record at this meeting throwing the 7lb. weight.

Thomas Butler; dead; one of the most popular land agents in the South of Ireland.

R. Chadwick; dead; master of the Arvalde Harriers, which showed good sport throughout the county; a daring horseman.

K. E. O'Brien; Golden; dead; was member of Parliament for Tipperary, and member of Tipperary Board of Guardians. A Nationalist of the old school, and of the purest type.

P. F. Hayes, chairman of the old Tipperary Town Commissioners; dead; re-visited Ireland recently, intending after a short stay to return to his wife and family in Australia, but died a month or two since, and rests beneath the green turf of his native land.

H. Ryan; dead; carried on a large bakery establishment in Tipperary.

R. Ronan; leading merchant of Tipperary, and one-time chairman of the Town Commissioners.

M. O'Brien; a leading light in Tipperary during the Smith-Barry fight; has a son, Richard, who holds a very prominent position in America.

Mr. Paul Flynn; alive; a sporting enthusiast, and at the moment busily engaged preparing for the Tipperary Show, of which he is secretary.

James O'Neill; proprietor, until a year or two ago, of the Irish House, Tipperary, which he sold to Messrs. Newell and Co.

C. H. Peare, one of the best "stick-toppers" in the South; resides at Landscape, Carrick-on-Suir.

Morgan D'Arcy, M.P.S.L., Main street; the life and soul of Gaelic "socials."

Phil Fitzgerald; though eighty-four years of age, still an active member of Tipperary Board of Guardians and a strenuous opponent of interference with Tipperary Hospital under the proposed amalgamation scheme; is a great handball enthusiast, and visits the ball-court in the Newtown to witness the contests almost every evening.

D. J. Condon, formerly manager of the Arcade; J. F. Duggan, G. Rutherford, P. E. Hayes have passed beyond the veil.

TIPPERARY URBAN COUNCIL.

DISCUSSION ABOUT THE RATES.

SEVERAL HUNDRED POUNDS OUTSTANDING.

"MUST BE COLLECTED."

VOTES OF CONDOLENCE.

The monthly meeting of the above council held on Monday evening, was presided over by Mr. J. O'Callaghan (vice-president), and there were also present Messrs. P. Godfrey, E. J. Lyons, T. Toomey, W. Cotter, J. Heffernan, and T. Fitzgerald.

Messrs. T. Dawson (Town Clerk), W. Heffernan (Town Surveyor), J. Wyse (rate collector), and J. DeLaney (Town Sergeant) were in attendance.

Rates.

The state of the rate collection was discussed.

Mr. Godfrey—There is £800 or £900 outstanding, and it should be collected.

The Clerk said that he did not want to throw any aspersion on anybody, but it was up to them all to try and get in the rates.

Mr. Godfrey—There are people who will not pay rates until they are compelled to do so, and those people should be made sit up.

A member asked if it was inability on the part of the people to pay the rates that caused the arrears.

Mr. Godfrey—In a good many cases it is not inability.

Clerk—You have the names on Mr. Wyse's list, and I think these people should be made pay.

Mr. Heffernan—Do these people who are in arrears get water, etc?

The Clerk replied in the affirmative.

Mr. Heffernan—Why not cut it off from these people?

Mr. Godfrey—You should make an order to have these rates collected. There are some people who can pay, and who will not pay until you make them.

Clerk—It would be better to go into this matter in committee, as I have some suggestions to make to you which are of a delicate nature.

The matter was discussed in committee.

Striking a Rate.

The following rate for the coming year was struck, namely, 11s. town rate and 5s. poor rate=16s.

The Clerk remarked that it was very little good striking a new rate when they could not get the rates due collected.

The Collector (Mr. Wyse) said he would do his best to collect all the arrears.

Chairman—If the rates are not in for the coming week there will be no money to pay council's workmen.

The collector explained that he had already got an overdraft in the bank, and only for that the men could not have been paid.

Chairman—Let us keep away as far as we can from the banks.

Mr. Heffernan—What about publishing the names of those people who owe money to the council?

A member said that had been done before by the council.

Mr. Cotter—That would be the last thing I would do. I would give them another chance.

Chairman—We have given them every chance, and now what are we to do?

Mr. Toomey—Why not prosecute them, and bring them before the magistrates.

"That would be recognising the court," remarked a member.

Mr. Toomey—Bring them before a republican court; there are republican magistrates in town.

Chairman—How would you manage, by a yard. Time, 18sec.

Third Heat.—A. Nunan walked over. Final Heat.—Purcell, 1; Peare, 2; Mooney, 3. Won on the tape; third close up. Time, 17 1/2 sec.

100 Yards Local Handicap.—Jerry Cotter, 6yds, 1; J. Peare, 1yd, 2; J. Gubbins, 1yd, 0; J. Burke, 6yds, 0. Won by two yards from Peare.

Throwing 16lb. Hammer.—J. S. Mitchell (Emly), 112ft. 6in., 1; Nunan, 2.

Pushing 28lb. Weight.—A. Gilhooly (Kilteely) 28ft. 8 1/2in., 1; M. P. O'Brien (Tipperary), 28ft. 8in., 2.

then, if you had to summon a policeman? Could you bring him to a republican court? (Laughter.)

Mr. Toomey—Pinion him to the chapel gates. (Laughter.) That's the way I'd manage him.

Chairman—There may not be money to pay the men's wages next week, and they cannot work without being paid.

Clerk—It is not hopeful to be striking a new rate when you cannot collect the outstanding accounts. I think Mr. Wyse should put his shoulder to the wheel.

The Collector said that unless he put his hands in their pockets he could not get the money out of some people.

Chairman—What are you going to do for Friday next for the payment of the men?

Mr. Godfrey—This thing should not be tolerated at all. All people owing rates should be made to pay.

Mr. Cotter—Are the men working to-day?

The Chairman replied that they were.

The Collector was directed to get in as much of the outstanding rates as possible during the week.

An Insanitary Yard.

The Chairman stated that a yard belonging to John McCarthy was in a bad condition, and required to be urgently attended to.

The Town Surveyor said he had served notice on the landlord.

Chairman—It is in a horrible bad state at present.

Mr. Heffernan—Should not Dr. O'Dwyer be brought to it?

Chairman—He should be brought to it.

Mr. Heffernan—Who is the landlord?

Town Surveyor—A man named Wilkinson.

Mr. Heffernan—Is it the archway the complaint is about?

Chairman—No; the yard. I don't know how the man lives in the house at all. The yard is in an awfully bad way, and if it is not seen to it will cause trouble.

Mr. Heffernan—If the landlord does not see to it, or recognise the council, what will you do?

Chairman—What is generally done in a case like this?

Town Surveyor—The offender is prosecuted and brought to the court.

Chairman—How long is the notice served?

Town Surveyor—About four days.

Chairman—It would be a blessing if something were done.

Mr. Cotter—Tell the landlord that if he does not abate the nuisance we will proceed against him.

Town Surveyor—The notice states that.

Mr. Heffernan—What is causing the trouble?? Bad sewerage?

Town Surveyor—It is.

Mr. Heffernan—Would the men belonging to the council be able to do anything to it?

The Town Surveyor said they were not supposed to go into places like that.

It was ordered that if the nuisance is not remedied at once legal proceedings will be taken.

Non-Attendance at School.

Mr. Godfrey said there were complaints about children not attending school regularly, and asked was there a school attendance committee, or who was on it. The attendance at the Monastery was 50 per cent. under the usual number. He contended that the children should be kept to school, and that parents who refused to comply with the order be brought before the parish court.

Mr. Cotter said it was a shame that youngsters were allowed to go about the streets instead of being at school.

A member suggested that the school attendance officer should go around, as in other towns, and bring a stick with him, and "wallop" the children to school.

Mr. Heffernan—It is a very serious thing not to have these youngsters sent to school.

Mr. Cotter—Why don't members of the school attendance committee function, and see that the children attend school? Is there a school attendance committee, or who are they, or where do they come from? (Laughter.)

The Clerk said there was, and there were clergymen on the committee.

Mr. Cotter—They should do something in the matter, and not be expecting the council here to do it.

Chairman—Mr. Cotter is one of the committee himself. (Laughter.)

Mr. Cotter—I am not one of the committee. I think the committee should be summoned, and the matter dealt with.

Mr. Cotter thought the committee should be summoned, and the matter dealt with.

The Clerk thought there was no use in doing so at the moment.

Mr. Toomey—The only thing is that if Frank Hayes does not get the kids sent to school he will have to leave the job. They should be sent to school. Long enough the workers' children were neglected, and they should get a chance now.

The school attendance officer was directed to see that the children be sent regularly to school in future, and that parents who refused to send them be prosecuted.

Matters in Committee.

The question of providing houses for ex-service men was referred to a committee, as was also the question of the maintenance of main roads.

Votes of Condolence.

Mr. Heffernan proposed a vote of condolence with Mr. J. J. Ryan on the death of his wife. Mr. Ryan was an old and respected member of the council, and he (Mr. Heffernan) was sure he was voicing the sentiments of all present when he said they all regretted the great loss Mr. Ryan had sustained.

Mr. Cotter seconded, and remarked that the late Mrs. Ryan was an estimable lady, and they were all sorry for her death.

The vote was passed in silence.

Resolutions of sympathy with the relatives of the late Very Rev. Dr. O'Neill, Lattin, and Right Rev. Mons. Burke were also passed in silence.

Tyrone and Fermanagh.

Mr. Toomey—We should pass a vote of congratulation to the counties Tyrone and Fermanagh for falling in with the rest of Ireland, and let them know that we appreciate their spirit.

Chairman—Were they not always there?

Mr. Toomey—Of course they were; but they were included in the "six-county Parliament."

Mr. Cotter—It would be as good to pass a resolution.

Condition of Workers' Houses.

The Town Clerk referred to the necessity of keeping the working-class dwellings in a decent state of repair. It was not fair to people who were willing to keep their homes clean to have a neighbour who was not willing to do so. It was not nice when going around to see bags stuffed in the windows. It was a reflection on the council, and he thought there should be more supervision exercised. Things should be put into decent shape.

This concluded the business of the meeting.

KILMALLOCK DISTRICT COUNCIL.

Half-Yearly Meeting.

Mr. L. T. Purcell (vice-chairman) presided, and there were also present Messrs. B. Flynn, M. Casey, J. Kennedy, J. Sheehan, J. Fitzgerald, C. Kearney, and J. Ahern.

The Conty Surveyor reported as follows:—"Your roads in some sections have suffered severely owing to shortage of material through want of explosives, and also owing to the extraordinary conditions that have prevailed for some time past. Notwithstanding this, those roads that were steam-rolled or coated with hard material have stood the test. Having recently travelled over most of the districts, I think that the roads generally compare favourably with any of the other roads in the division."

"New Works.—I have no list of new works from your clerk, nor have I any proposals to make. I have to add to my report that my estimate of road expenditure for the year ending March 31st, 1923, is £20,678, leviable off your district in respect of main roads, thus: Main road estimate, £13,992; district road estimate, £6,681."

On the proposition of Mr. Flynn, seconded by Mr. Sheehan, the report was passed unanimously.

Mr. Flynn proposed that "undesirables" should not in future be employed on any works in the county.

Mr. Purcell seconded the motion, which was passed, and the meeting terminated.

HOSPITAL PETTY SESSIONS.

Railway Travelling Without Tickets.

Above court was held before Major Pomeroy Colley, R.M. (presiding) and Mr. J. A. Hardy, R.M.

Owing to the destruction of the Courthouse at Hospital the Court for Hospital district was held at Kilmallock.

The Great Southern and Western Railway Company summoned John Gallagher, Hospital, for having, on June 22nd, 1921, travelled between Newbridge or Carragh siding to Knocklong without a ticket.

Mr. B. M. O'Meara, solicitor, Cork, appeared for the railway company.

Defendant did not appear, nor was he professionally represented.

Mr. O'Meara said that defendant was seen emerging from the last carriage on the said train by Mr. J. Cauty, stationmaster at Knocklong. Mr. Cauty called on him to stop, but the defendant ran away, unheeding the calls.

Next day John Gallagher's employer purchased a third-class ticket for him to Limerick Junction. On defendant's return on June 23rd Mr. Cauty saw him, and called on him to give up the ticket, and the defendant handed him a ticket dated May 25th, 1921, from Newbridge. Mr. Cauty asked him for the fare for June 22nd, and Gallagher stated that he did not travel on that date, but Mr. Cauty was prepared to swear that John Gallagher was the man who ran away on June 22nd, when he had no ticket whatever.

Mr. J. Cauty, stationmaster at Knocklong, and Martin Molloy, corroborated Mr. O'Meara's statements.

The Bench imposed a fine of £1 and £1 costs.

The same complainants summoned Thomas Ryan, of the Hospital district, for similar offences on June 22nd and 23rd, 1921.

There was no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

Mr. O'Meara, outlining the facts of the cases, said that on June 22nd Mr. Cauty, stationmaster at Knocklong, saw

TIPPERARY SHOP ASSISTANTS' STRIKE.

To the Editor.—The Tipperaryman.

Dear Sir.—In your issue of the 27th ult. Mr. Corcoran writes that the present dispute can only be settled on lines that are just and reasonable. The assistants who are on strike desire only a just and reasonable settlement. The figures published in your report of the Urban Council meeting go to show that the settlements already made are not exactly just from the workers' point of view, but they are certainly very reasonable. In the figures quoted by Mr. Corcoran in his published letter will be found the greatest condemnation of the employers' attitude. Who is going to say who in a dispute between two parties is just and who unjust? Who is going to say who is reasonable and who unreasonable? In my opinion such a verdict can be given only by an independent, impartial tribunal, and not by one of the warring sides. Prompted by that belief, and actuated by the reasonableness of our case, the Drapers' Assistants' Association have from the outset gladly put their views before everybody who cared to intervene, and when asked to do so unhesitatingly agreed to leave the whole issue to an independent, outside, unattached arbitrator. Apparently, despite all their talk about the reasonableness of their position, the employers are not prepared to accept the verdict of any tribunal, no matter how chosen or how definitely interested. In fact, the employers have not only refused arbitration, but mediation. I think the public can judge from these circumstances who is anxious for "a right and reasonable decision."

Yours, etc.,

L. J. DUFFY.

THE IRISH LANGUAGE.

To the Youth of Ireland.

The youth of Ireland are to-day doing their share in striving for their national freedom, but what has become of our loving national landmark, the Irish language. It is a well-known fact that Ireland is a geographical unit, with a distinct boundary of its own and a language which surpasses all the languages of the world. We are a nation in ourselves, absolutely distinct in customs and manners, and, knowing this, we are proud of it. But we have a language given us by the Omnipotent Master, given to us to express ourselves differently to any other nation, and let us ask ourselves—Have we cherished days as the exponents of right and justice, we stand before the world as a distinct nation, having a distinct status, and a distinct language. We claim to have fought every nation's battles, but we have not stood by our own mother tongue. In this we are lacking, and a nation's language is absolutely essential to the status of our island home, and we must feel horror when we see the language of our country fading as the leaves in autumn.

What a crime it will be for us, the rising generation, if we stand by and allow our national language to be snapped from us, not by foreign oppression but by the slothfulness of our own people! The Irish language is the hallmark of an Irishman, and now is the time to regain that which our ancestors had—an Irish-speaking country. Let the present generation be the uplifiers of the language, strive as they have never done, before to accomplish a speaking knowledge. Remember what De Valera says: "If you have the language, speak it. If you have it not, learn it." Learn it then, and don't stand listening to your friends speaking, and saying "I'd love to know Irish."

BRUREE DISPUTE ENDED.

Workers Evacuate the Mills.

After one week's occupation by the workers, Messrs. Cleeve's mills at Bruree are to be handed back to the owners and work resumed to-day under normal conditions. This decision was reached at a conference held at Liberty Hall, Dublin, on Friday, between representatives of employers and the workers.

During their brief occupation of the premises the workers did an unusually large retail trade, consequent upon a cut in the prices of Messrs. Cleeve's stocks, while those engaged in carrying on the business were given increases in wages of 7s. 6d. all round.

TIPPERARY GUARDIANS AND AMALGAMATION.

Committee Considers a Scheme.

On Thursday a committee meeting of the Tipperary Board of Guardians, presided over by Mr. Kirby, and comprising also the following members—Messrs. P. J. Moloney, T.D., J. McCarthy, M. Shelly, T. Toomey, P. Ferris, and P. Hogan—was held in the board-room, Tipperary, for the purpose of formulating an amalgamation scheme by which Tipperary hospital could be retained as an independent institution.

The O'Flaherty scheme of amalgamation was submitted to the meeting.

The Chairman explained the objects of the meeting.

Mr. Moloney said he knew very little about the proposed amalgamation scheme, but any decision arrived at by the meeting he would have forwarded to the proper quarter.

Mr. Ferris asked if the officers put out of employment by the amalgamation scheme would get superannuation, and the chairman replied in the affirmative.

After a sitting of over two hours the meeting decided to adopt the O'Flaherty scheme, with some modifications.

The matter will be further discussed at the next guardians' meeting.

YET ANOTHER ONE AT CAPPAWHITE!

Having just brought off a most successful dance in aid of the National schools of the parish, the Volunteers of Cappawhite announce a benefit dance, in the same venue, on the 18th inst. Their arrangements were so good and the financial success of last Sunday's dance so handsome, that an at least equally pleasant night should be spent on the 18th, and the financial result be no less satisfactory.

CAPPAWHITE AND DISTRICT.

A Local "Good One."

A good many local racegoers made a bit at the Junction on Tuesday on Mr. John Kelly's George Edgar, when that smart colt won handsomely in the Ballykisteen Plate. George Edgar is by By George! the well-known sire standing at Greenfields. The Kellys have often owned high-class horses, including the Irish Derby winner, Shanballymore, and Chadville. Jabstraw won the Dublin Plate on the same day, and was also sired by a late Greenfield stallion, The Jabberwock.

A Well-Known Litterateur.

Rev. St. John Seymour, the well-known author of invaluable historical notes concerning local places of interest lives at Donohill Rectory, where he has resided for the past ten years. The people of the district owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. Seymour for his research work among old documents which cannot but be of interest to people residing in the localities treated of in his historical notes. All the Irish papers have warmly eulogised Mr. Seymour's latest book, "The Puritans in Ireland."

A Dry Wave.

Old John Barleycorn is receiving some nasty blows, here and there, in this district, and all the Cripplewhite pubs were hermetically sealed down on Sunday night last at 9 p.m. by "the boys." The poor boys felt after that hour had to quench his thirst at the village pumps, which, by the way, were condemned some years ago as being rather unsanitary. "This is hard lines, but Ireland sober is Ireland free; (though I confess I can't quite see how you are going to make any place sober by Act of Parliament, so to speak.

Home for Week-End.

Mr. P. F. English, Donohill, of the Department of Agriculture, recently spent a week-end at his home, whence he journeyed to the North last Monday in connection with some Departmental work. We hope that he will meet some of Sir James Craig's friends and induce them to throw in their lot with a united Ireland from Fair Head to Cape Clear.

Farm Work.

The rickling of the hay is now fairly well advanced in this district. If the yield is small the product is of a high quality. Then, too, the aftergrass is somewhat above the average. All things considered, the price of hay may not reach the high figures prognosticated in some quarters last July.

Local Historyettes.

We have all read, and heard, of the great King Brian the Brave, who defeated the Danes at Clontarf one memorable Good Friday morning, and freed Ireland from foreign rule or aggression. Most of us know also that Brian had an elder brother, Mahon, who was King of Munster, and a very great soldier. When Mahon was King of Munster, and Brian a young boy of seventeen, the Danes were very powerful in Limerick and other Southern strongholds. Now these two brave Irish leaders resolved to wrest Munster from the strangers. Accordingly a battle was fought at Solohead, over nine hundred years ago, in which the Irish forces, under Mahon and Brian, beat the Danes and drove them back in confusion to Limerick. This battle roused hope again in the Irish nation, and the Danish conquest which threatened to subjugate the country was arrested, and, in 1014 under Brian, finally crushed.

At the time of the battle the country was, most probably, wooded. The scene, the best of authorities tell us, was along the Tipperary hills via Solohead. So you see the local country is rich in historical interest.

WORKHOUSE AMALGAMATION.

APPOINTMENTS MADE UNDER CO. LIMERICK SCHEME.

An adjourned meeting of the governing body of the Co. Limerick Workhouse Amalgamation Scheme was held at the Co. Council Chamber on Saturday. The meeting was convened for the appointment of officers.

The proceedings were conducted in camera.

It was subsequently learned that the following were elected to the positions to be filled at the County Hospital at Croom:—Mr M J Hassett, secretary; Dr M O'Brien, resident medical officer; Dr W Lane and Dr W Brennan, visiting medical officers; Miss King, matron; Miss Hogan and Miss McNamara, fever nurses; Miss Condon, Miss Drew, Miss Manning and Miss O'Sullivan, general hospital nurses; Miss O'Donoghue, maternity nurse; Mr J O'Brien, storekeeper; Mr J Kearney, gatekeeper; and Mr L McNamee, ambulance driver.

Dr J Cremin was elected medical officer, and Mr J King, clerk of the County Home at Newcastle West.

SOUTH TIPPERARY RATES.

The business of the quarterly meeting of the South Tipperary Co. Council last week was of a routine character. Mr L J D'Alton, Chairman, presided.

An order was made calling on all rate collectors to complete the collections by September 20; interest to be charged on all outstanding rates from that date, and proceedings to be taken for their recovery.

DEATH OF RIGHT REV. MONS. O'NEILL, LATTIN.

Venerable Churchman Passes Away.

The death of the Right Rev. Mons. O'Neill, D.D., P.P., Lattin, on Thursday, 1st inst., came as a great shock to his parishioners and immediate friends...

The late Dr. O'Neill was a gentleman of splendid and imposing physique, and although eighty-seven years of age, looked considerably younger...

As a pulpit orator he ranked high, and whether in the pulpit, in the confessional or at the bedside of the dying, he was a beloved sagartha.

He enjoyed to the fullest the confidence of his superiors, the esteem of his colleagues in the diocese, and the deep love and affection of the people to whom he had so long and earnestly ministered.

The Funeral.

On Monday Requiem High Mass and Office were celebrated in Lattin church for the repose of the soul of the deceased, Right Rev. Mons. Ryan, P.P., V.G., Tipperary, presiding...

Interment took place immediately after the ceremony in the churchyard outside the main entrance door.

DEATH OF MRS. M. RYAN, TIPPERARY.

We regret to announce the death, which took place on Friday night of last week at the convalescent home, Dundrum, Co. Dublin, of Mrs. M. Ryan, wife of Mr. J. J. Ryan, merchant, Main street, Tipperary...

DEATH OF VERY REV. CANON BURKE, GORTNAHOE.

The death is announced of Very Rev. Canon Burke, at his residence, Gortnahee, on Friday last week, after a rather protracted illness.

On Monday the obsequies took place at Gortnahee, where many thousands of people assembled to pay a last tribute of respect to the dead pastor.

District Correspondents CAPPAWHITE AND DISTRICT.

A Foolish Superstition.

This is the season when that virulent disease among young cattle commonly called blackquarter claims many victims from our herds. Of course we are aware that most farmers nowadays apply a preventive for this scourge; but what we wish to draw attention to is the ignorant and foolish custom of not burying animals which have died with blackquarter.

Petty Thefts.

In this area petty larcenies of apples and garden stuffs continue. I hope to see the perpetrators brought to book.

The Local Dances.

Devotees of the light fantastic toe have had their innings in this district. Dances at Donohill, Carhue, Cappawhite, and Black Bridge have followed in quick succession. On Friday night a most successful "scrap" was held in Cappawhite. It was the Graffin T.A. Society which popularised the scrap in this locality.

And More of Them.

The Black Bridge Volunteer dancers, where cheer and merriment held high carnival is no sooner history than another social of the same kind is listed for Cappawhite, and it is expected that this latter entertainment will prove the greatest success of its kind held in Clauwilliam for many years.

Indian Corn.

I am sure that very few Irish people have seen this invaluable cereal growing, except those who have been overseas. This year, however, some plants, planted in Greenfields, have almost attained maturity. The exceptionally warm year favoured them.

Donohill Races.

Look out for this gala day in Donohill. In another column you will notice all particulars of this interesting programme. The field is nicely situated, and most suitable for a good day's sport.

Catch Crops.

Farmers in this vicinity are up and doing, planting vetches and rye, and manured so as to be available next April. In some cases early potatoes have been dug out to find space for the crop; in other instances stubble ground, freshly manured, has been utilised.

Potatoes.

As I predicted some weeks ago potatoes in this district are of an average yield, and of a good table variety. In some fields spuds put down in March went to second growth, and tubers of this kind are, of course, inferior.

Dundrum Market.

At the pig market held in this village during the week a small drop in prices was noticeable. Prime porkers fetched about £10, a price that farmers say leaves no margin of profit.

Peace or War?

As I write the scales are about evenly balanced, and war may once more darken and blight the land. But after every war a peace conference convenes and settles things one way or another. Why not have the conference before the war? To the lay mind it seems simple.

Doon Monthly Market.

There was a good supply of young pigs at this market. The demand for strong slips was good, and all were disposed of at prices ranging from £2 to £3 each. Young animals were difficult to dispose of.

Tipperary v. Limerick.

A large number of Gaels from this district travelled to Thurles on Sunday last to witness the inter-county hurling contest between Tipperary and Limerick. The game was evenly contested, and brilliant play was witnessed at times. Tipperary, represented by Boherlahan, won by the narrow margin of one minor. The winners had the best of matters throughout and for the major portion of the game kept the leather in their opponents' ground. It is surprising they did not win by a bigger majority.

Cappawhite Races.

I understand that horse and pony races will be held in Cappawhite very soon. A trial race took place on Sunday last to see if the course would be suitable.

Dundrum Dance.

A successful and enjoyable dance was held in the new creamery at Black Bridge, Dundrum, on Sunday night last. Over 150 couples were present. The spacious ballroom was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Splendid music was provided by a first-class orchestra. Dancing concluded at dawn, when all returned home fully pleased with the night's entertainment.

Deaths in Exile.

The deaths occurred recently of Mr. John Bourke, a native of Cappawhite, in America; Mr. John Murphy, also of Cappawhite; and Mrs. Fitzgerald, Moonvaun, in Australia.

The Recent Dance.

The local clergy officiating at both Masses in the parish church, Cappawhite, on Sunday last, thanked those who had helped to make the dance in the schoolhouse, on behalf of the schools, a success. A considerable sum of money now remains in hand, and the balance of the debt to be cleared off will be very small.

HOSPITAL.

Carrickparson Races.

A delightful afternoon was spent by those who journeyed to Carrickparson, two miles outside the little village of Cahereonish, last Sunday, for the purpose of attending the race meeting there. Favoured with weather conditions that left nothing to be desired, the fixture was in every way successful. The course was literally packed, people coming in all classes of vehicles. The "bookie," too, was well represented, although his prices were anything but liberal. The various sideshows, which were not the least attractive feature of the day's pleasure, were well supported. The fund in aid of the curate's house should benefit considerably by the meeting.

Released.

Mr. W. Downes, Oldtown, Hospital, has been released from Brixton Prison, after serving a twelve months' sentence for a political offence. He looks hale and hearty after his incarceration.

The Sean Wall Fund.

A collection in aid of the Sean Wall Fund will be held on Sunday next at the church gates. It is to be hoped that all who can will subscribe towards this worthy object.

GOLDEN.

Fairs.

In recent notes I referred to the re-establishment of the local fairs, and am sorry to find no action has been taken in the matter by those directly interested, which means the whole countryside, and mountain-side also. This lethargy is amazing. A few years ago we had here a Farmers' Society, who used to interest themselves with compromise in every subject from Peru to Timbuctoo—even enterprises as far away as Waterford didn't escape their attention. We often heard the hackneyed phrase then: "Far-away cows wear long horns." Golden fairs, of course, are not within the visual range of those who habitually take the distant view.

An Accident.

I regret to chronicle a nasty accident at Doon races. Miss Nellie Ryan, the twelve-year-old daughter of the genial and popular owner of the Thomastown hostelry. Miss Ryan has often steered many a good one to victory in local racing fixtures, and I sincerely hope she will soon do so again.

Obituary.

Death recently claimed some well-known and highly respected residents of the Ballyslatteen district. One was Mrs. Johanna Ryan, relict of the late Simon Ryan, who represented the Ballyearnon E.D. on the old Tipperary Board of Guardians prior to the passing of the Local Government Act, and mother to the Rev. J. J. Ryan, chaplain to the Presentation nuns, Dundrum. Mrs. Ryan was an amiable and accomplished lady, and came of a well-known and highly-esteemed family, the Butlers, of Ballyglasheen, near Bausha. To her esteemed family I beg to tender a full measure of sympathy.

It is my melancholy duty to chronicle also the death of Michael O'Neill, an old and gallant colleague in Land League days. The late Mr. O'Neill was a prominent figure in local politics, till old age and impaired health intervened. He was a native of the Cappawhite district, where his family are well and favourably known. He had the proud distinction of being a lineal descendant of the great Owen Roe.

Deplorable.

I'd say nothing in existing circumstances to militate against our public representatives in the Tipperary Board of Guardians, were it not for the fact that the poor unfortunate creatures on outdoor relief are curtailed of their weekly allowance. I'll just mention the case of a poor man in this village—born under and affliction of God—who is a pitiable object of charity, gets only a few shillings once a quarter. Surely, out of the large amount of rates already collected a portion to meet this pressing case could be earmarked for the purpose of keeping such poor unfortunate creatures from actual hunger and want. The title Poor-law guardian has a significant application under the Medical Charities Act. Has it now developed into an empty and barren nothingness, a word with a perverted meaning and a vague application? P.L.G., Moryagh.

CASHEL.

Death of Mrs. Ellen King.

The recent death of Mrs. Ellen King, Boherelough, evoked widespread feelings of regret in Cashel, where she and her husband, Mr. John King had lived for many years. A large concourse accompanied the remains to the parish church, where the coffin rested on a catafalque overnight, and on Thursday morning Solemn Office and High Mass were celebrated for her eternal repose. The funeral left for the family burial place in Oola graveyard at one o'clock, and was very large and representative. The following clergy officiated at the obsequies:—Right Rev. Mgr. Innocent Ryan, P.P., V.G., Dean of Cashel; Very Rev. Dr. Slattery, D.D., P.P., Sologhead; Rev. D. Duggan, C.C., Cashel; and Rev. W. O'Dwyer, C.C., Cashel. A number of beautiful floral tributes were laid on the grave. With the husband and family of deceased in their sad bereavement there is widespread sympathy.

The Market.

The market held on Saturday was fairly large. Potatoes sold at 1s., 1s. 2d., and 1s. 3d. per stone. Bawn hay (two loads), 7 5s. to £7 10s. per ton. Best beef, 1s. 8d. per lb.

Public Meeting.

It is stated that a public meeting will be held in the city next Sunday week, and will be addressed by Countess Markievitz and other Sinn Fein members of Parliament.

Trenches Filled In.

Trenches on the road between Tipperary and Cashel have been filled in. Convenient to Cashel several telegraph poles, cut across about four feet from the ground, remain on the roadside.

THE DAIL'S REPLY

WHY BRITISH OFFER IS REJECTED.

NOT GOVERNMENT BY CONSENT OF THE GOVERNED.

The reply of the Ministry of Dail Eireann to the British Government's communication of August 26, which was handed to Mr. Lloyd George at Gairloch on Thursday evening of last week by Com. R. C. Barton and Com. Joseph McGrath, is as follows:—

"Mansion House, Dublin, August 20, 1921.

"The Right Hon. D. LLOYD GEORGE, 10 Downing Street, Whitehall, London.

"Sir.—We, too, are convinced that it is essential that some definite and immediate progress should be made towards a basis upon which further negotiations can usefully proceed, and recognise the futility of a 'mere exchange' of argumentative notes. I shall refrain, therefore, from commenting on the fallacious historical references in your last communication.

"The present is the reality with which we have to deal. The conditions to-day are the resultant of the past, accurately summing it up and giving in simplest form the essential data of the problem.

Irish People's Choice.

"These data are:— (1). The people of Ireland, acknowledging no voluntary union with Great Britain, and claiming as a fundamental natural right to choose freely for themselves the path they shall take to realise their national destiny, have by an overwhelming majority declared for independence, set up a Republic, and more than once confirmed their choice.

"(2). Great Britain, on the other hand, acts as though Ireland were bound to her by a contract of union that forbade separation. The circumstances of the supposed contract are notorious, yet on the theory of its validity the British Government and Parliament claim to rule and legislate for Ireland, even to the point of partitioning Irish territory against the will of the Irish people, and killing or casting into prison every Irish citizen who refuses allegiance.

"The proposals of your Government submitted in the draft of July 20 are based fundamentally on the latter promise.

Inferior Status.

"We have rejected these proposals and our rejection is irrevocable. They were not an invitation to Ireland to enter into a free and willing partnership with the free nations of the British Commonwealth. They were an invitation to Ireland to enter in a guise, and under conditions which determine a status definitely inferior to that of these free States. Canada, Australia, South Africa, New Zealand, are all guaranteed against the domination of the major State, not only by the acknowledged constitutional rights which give them equality of status with Great Britain and absolute freedom from the control of the British Parliament and Government, but by the thousands of miles that separate them from Great Britain. Ireland would have the guarantees neither of distance nor of right.

Partition.

"The conditions sought to be imposed would divide her into two artificial states, each destructive of the other's influence in any common council, and both subject to the military, naval and economic control of the British Government.

"The main historical and geographical facts are not in dispute, but your Government insists on viewing them from your standpoint. We must be allowed to view them from ours. The history that you interpret as dictating union we read as dictating separation. Our interpretations of the fact of 'geographical propinquity' are no less diametrically opposed. We are convinced that ours is the true and just interpretation, and as a proof are willing that a neutral, impartial arbitrator should be the judge.

Force Not the Solution.

"You refuse and threaten to give effect to your view by force. Our reply must be that if you adopt that course we can only resist, as the generations before us have resisted. Force will not solve the problem. It will never secure the ultimate victory over reason and right. If you again resort to force, and if victory be not on the side of justice, the problem that confronts us will confront our successors. The fact that for 750 years this problem has resisted a solution by force is evidence and warning sufficient. It is true wisdom, therefore, and true statesmanship, not any false idealism, that prompts me and my colleagues. Threats of force must be set aside. They must be set aside from the beginning, as well as during the actual conduct of the negotiations.

Principle Must Guide.

"The respective plenipotentiaries must meet untrammelled by any conditions save the facts themselves, and must be prepared to reconcile their subsequent differences not by appeals to force, covert or open, but by reference to some guiding principle on which there is common agreement. We have proposed the principle of government by consent of the governed, and do not mean it as a mere phrase. It is a simple expression of the test to which any proposed solution must respond if it is to prove adequate, and it can be used as a criterion for the details as well as for the whole.

Plenipotentiaries.

"That you claim it as a peculiarly British principle, instituted by Britain, and 'now the very life of the British Commonwealth,' should make it peculiarly acceptable to you. On this basis, and this only, we see a hope of reconciling the considerations which must govern the attitude of Britain's representatives with the considerations that must govern the attitude of Ireland's representatives, and on this basis we are ready at once to appoint plenipotentiaries.

"I am, Sir, Faithfully yours, (Signed) EAMON DE VALERA."

BRITISH CABINET'S REPLY.

Invitation into a Conference.

Mr. Lloyd George's reply was handed to Mr. De Valera on Thursday evening.

It rules out of consideration an interpretation of the principle of government by consent of the governed, which might involve the setting up of a republic and repudiation of the Crown.

On the other hand, Sinn Fein is invited to discuss the Government's proposals on their merits, so that there may be no doubt as to the scope and sincerity of their intentions.

In such a conference the question of guarantees could be raised.

To decline to discuss a settlement within the Empire could only mean repudiation of the Crown and of all membership of the British Commonwealth. Discussion on those lines could serve no useful purpose.

Any supposed shortcomings in the Government's proposals could be explored at the conference at Inverness on September 20th.

The correspondence has lasted long enough, and His Majesty's Government now asks for a definite reply.

DEATH OF MR. GEORGE FURLONG CAPPAWHITE.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. George Furlong, Ardnagrassane, Cappawhite. The deceased, who was aged 77 years, and had been in failing health for the past two years, passed away on Tuesday last. A prosperous and extensive farmer, he was well-known and extremely popular in Tipperary and Cappawhite districts. He was father of a large and talented family, one of whom, Rev. Roger Furlong, was recently ordained to the priesthood, and is shortly about to leave for Seattle, U.S.A. One of his daughters is Superioress of a convent at Bill, in Wales, and a sister of his is Rev. Mother of the Ursuline Convent, Kilkenny.

The late Mr. Furlong was brother-in-law of Mr. Nicholas Maher, auctioneer, Ballymore House, Cashel; and of the late Mr. Edmond Hogan, Bank Place, Tipperary, and father-in-law of Mr. John Kelly, Chadville House, Cappawhite.

After Office and High Mass at Cappawhite, the remains were removed for interment in the family burying-ground at Toem. (A report of the funeral will appear in our next issue.)

THE ENTRIES FOR TIPPERARY SHOW.

Altogether there are over 1,000 entries for this year's Show. There is a large increase in the Poultry section, and the entries for horses have reached the same number as at last year's. Show those of hunters having filled splendidly. In the cattle department there is a slight falling away. The net result is that, making allowances for the eliminated butter classes, the entries are not much below those of 1920, which, in the circumstances, is excellent.

The ladies committee have kindly undertaken to attend to the catering, and in their capable hands, with reduced prices, general satisfaction is anticipated.

CASHEL GRAND ANNUAL EXCURSION.

To the Editor "The Tipperaryman." Sir.—As excursions are again possible at cheap fares, and as Cashel has always been renowned for the success of its "Grand Annual," I am sure the energetic hon. sec. (Mr. J. A. Ashmore) would be only too delighted to convene a meeting of the citizens for the purpose of promoting one this year—now is the time.—Yours, "A CITIZEN."

TIPPERARY LIVE-WEIGHT PIG MARKET.

There was a large supply on Thursday, and a good attendance of buyers. The price fell from the £5 6s. of the preceding week to £4 13s.

HANDBALL.

CLONMEL PLAYERS VISIT TIPPERARY.

The accommodation in the Tipperary alley was more than taxed last Sunday when Clonmel visited the town for a series of matches. A large contingent travelled with the visitors, who had to put up with a rather severe defeat.

Clonmel was represented by D. Mulcahy and G. Farrell in the singles, and G. Fitzgerald, J. Smith, T. Shanahan, and T. Connors in the doubles.

Tipperary played R. Wade and P. Brett in the singles, and H. J. Wade, P. McInerney, J. Killackey, and N. McGivney in the doubles. Clonmel were badly handicapped in Tipperary alley, as they had never had experience of back-wall play, and thus lost very many aces.

The scores were as follows:—

- I. R. Wade—21, 21, 21. D. Mulcahy—5, 2, 5, 7.

II.

H. J. Wade and P. McInerney—21, 21, 21.

T. Shanahan and T. Connors—1, 1, 12, 1.

III.

N. McGivney and J. Killackey—21, 8, 21, 21.

J. Smith and J. Fitzgerald—11, 21, 1, 13.

IV.

P. Brett—21, 21, 21, 21.

D. Mulcahy—1, 9, 10, 15.

The Tipperary boys travel to Clonmel on Sunday, the 18th, when, under more favourable conditions, the Clonmel players will probably render a better account of themselves.

After the games the visitors were hospitably entertained by the local club at Mr. Evans' Cafe, Town Hall.

The Tournaments.

The senior and junior tournaments were again in progress during the week, the latter tournament being finished. J. Ryan and J. Tuohy ran out winners, with "Nano" and J. Ryan as runners-up. The games provided some interesting play, and aroused keen excitement amongst the spectators. The final scores were:—

- J. Ryan and J. Tuohy—21, 18, 21. "Nano" and J. Ryan—13, 21, 7.

CATTLE STOLEN AT BOHERCROWE.

Arrest by I.R.A.

On Thursday morning four head of cattle, the property of Mr. J. O'Brien, Barronstown, grazing on the lands of Mr. Ryan, Boherelough, were missed, and on a search were found later in the day on offer for sale at Cashel fair by a man, it is stated, from the Emly district. He was taken into custody by Republican police and detained.

IN MEMORIAM.

Massy—Fifteenth Anniversary.—To the honoured, dear, and never-fading memory of my devoted father, Lieut.-General W. G. Dunham Massy, C.B., D.L., who fell asleep at his residence, Grantstown Hall, Tipperary, on September 20th, 1906. Bring him, O Lord, into Thy light and peace. May he come to the shining of Thy perfect day.

They hear that man laughing; you think he's all fun; But the angels laughed, too, at the good he has done; The children laugh loudly as they troop to his call; But the poor man who knows him laughs the loudest of all.—Inserted by his only child.
