JUST THINK!

You Support Local Industry if you have your Printing done at the County Printing Works, Davis Street, Tipperary—now the only Printing Works in the Town. If all the Printing used in Tipperary which could be produced in the town were produced in it, we should be able to pay £70 or £80 a week in wages. And any Printing entrusted to us would be well done, and charged for fairly.

TIPPERARY'S GREATEST DAY OF FOOTBALL.

ARCHBISHOP CROKE AND IRISH-IRELAND MOVEMENT.

A TIPPERARY TEAM THAT WAS NEVER BEATEN.

By "Dr. Mick."

May Day 1887, in Tipperary was a real Gaelic football day. Twenty-two teams were present...

The G.A.A. movement was set on foot by that illustrious Churchman, the late Archbishop Croke...

I was one of the first and with me were several of those of the greatest name in Ireland...

The G.A.A. movement was set on foot by that illustrious Churchman, the late Archbishop Croke...

On May Day 1887, with an unbeaten record, they faced Knockavilla's yellow and greened stalwarts...

G.A.A. NOTES.

Handball.

Sunday was practically a blank day in the Alley, with the exception of a few unimportant matches...

On Sunday next the Tipperary players travel to Clonmel to play the return match. Judging by the display given by the Clonmel representatives...

Whilst on this subject I understand there was some talk a little while back of organising a tournament confined to members of the hurling and football clubs...

It is expected that a resumption to hurling and football will take place at an early date. There is nothing in the way at present to prevent local matches...

Incident.

The Leinster final in hurling was played last Sunday at Croke Park, between Dublin and Kerry...

On the occasion of the hurling match, the Tipperary team was present in the stands...

Golden was disappointed that the hurling final was not played on Sunday last. They now want the match fixed, and are prepared, if they win, to offer the set of medals attached to the match for a tournament...

The School Sports are to be held after all, the committee of the Show Grounds having, after long consideration, decided to grant the use of the grounds for the day...

WORLD'S POULTRY CONGRESS.

Education as Applied to the Poultry Industry in Ireland.

In the course of a paper read to the Fourth (Educational) Section of the World's Poultry Congress, now in session at The Hague, Holland, the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland said that in determining the direction in which education was to be applied to the industry...

The early days of the shortage of qualified teachers and first officers was a matter of some difficulty. The Department found it necessary to procure, they were not only employed, but were fully qualified...

The question of the export trade in poultry products had increased steadily since 1910, and that the quantity of eggs exported in 1920 was almost double that of 1910...

Collection, Marketing, and Transport of Irish Eggs Discussed.

In the course of a paper on the above subject, read to the International Trade Section of the World's Poultry Congress, Mr. P. J. O'Neill, manager of the Wholesale Co-operative Society, Ltd., Arung, said...

CASHEL CARNIVAL.

The expectations of the committee were realised in Cashel on Sunday, when there was a tremendous muster from all parts of the country to participate in the varied forms of public entertainment...

It is a matter for congratulation that the sum realised will help materially to reduce the debt on the parish church, brought about by the many improvements and innovations which will still further enhance its ornate beauty and place it amongst the foremost in Ireland. Details:--

IRISH SECTION A CENTRE OF INTEREST.

The interest in the World's Poultry Congress, which was opened on Monday, September 6th by Queen Wilhelmina, was well maintained until its close. Her Majesty, who was accompanied by the Prince Consort, visited the Irish section almost immediately after the official welcome to the delegates to the Congress...

BURGLARY IN TIPPERARY.

On Thursday night, or early on Friday morning, the industries shed in the Tipperary Showgrounds, used as an instruction room in carpentry by ex-Army men, was entered, and carpenter's tools to the value of £6 taken away. The shed door was closed the previous evening in the usual way by Mr. Gaynor, but on examination the police found that the lock on the door was faulty, and could be easily forced open by a little extra pressure...

A GREAT SHOW. RECORD CROWDS AT TIPPERARY. FINE ENTRY OF HUNTERS. ALL-ROUND EXCELLENCE OF EXHIBITS.

Altogether, the Society has never held a Show so favourably commented upon, and it is without any reservation that we join heartily in the congratulations being extended on every hand to the hardworking committee, office bearers, and officials...

When circumstances compelled postponement of the Tipperary Show for 1921 from the date first tentatively appointed for it, there were many who thought that perhaps it would be as well if the fixture were abandoned for the year; and when ultimately mid-September was decided on as the time of its holding there was, if not a general, at least a considerable body of opinion that the season would then be too far advanced to allow of success for an enterprise of the kind. Well, the agreeably unexpected has happened. The Show has been held, and in several respects has been attended with a measure of success equal to that of the best of its fore-runners.

Class 3 (Open)—Best Hunter, Gelding, or Filly, 5 years old or upwards, to carry 11st and upwards.—1st, Rev. J. O'Shea, Kilmallock; 2nd, Patk.
